PREFACE

THE REVISION OF THIS BONHAM BOOK IS FOR THE PURPOSE OF PRESERVING THE RECORDS OF OUR BONHAM FOREBEARS, WHO HAVE COME DOWN OUT OF AN INTERESTING PAST.

1613360

A GREAT MANY BONHAM DESCENDANTS ARE TODAY INTERESTED IN THEIR ORIGINS, AND ARE TRYING TO ESTABLISH THEIR LINES TO THE EARLIEST ANCESTORS OF THE NAME WHO CAME TO THIS COUNTRY.

MOST OF THIS MATERIAL IS THE DATA ON THE GENERATIONS SINCE THE ORIGINAL PUBLICATION IN 1909.

FULL CREDIT IS GIVEN TO DR. EMMET L. SMITH FOR HIS EFFORTS IN PRODUCING THE ORIGINAL BONHAM BOOK.

A SINCERE EFFORT HAS BEEN MADE TO ASSURE AS COMPLETE AND ACCURATE A RECORD AS POSSIBLE.

MANY LINES ARE INCLUDED THAT WERE NOT IN THE ORIGINAL BOOK, AND ARE GENERALLY CONFINED TO THE MALE BONHAM LINE.

SEVERAL YEARS OF TEDIOUS SEARCH HAVE GRADUALLY PILED UP THE INFORMATION FOR THIS WORK. HUNTING THROUGH HUNDREDS OF VOLUMES IN LIBRARIES, SEARCHING COURT HOUSE RECORDS, VISITING CEMETERIES AND CHURCHES, AS WELL AS PERSONAL CALLS ON HUNDREDS OF BONHAM DESCENDANTS, AND WRITING MANY HUNDREDS OF LETTERS HAS MADE THIS RECORD POSSIBLE. MANY, MANY HUNDREDS OF MILES HAVE BEEN TRAVELED TO SECURE DATA THAT COULD HAVE BEEN SECURED BY MAIL IF SO MANY HAD NOT BEEN UNWILLING TO ANSWER LETTERS OF INQUIRY. TO THOSE WHO HAVE SO KINDLY ASSISTED ME I WISH TO EXPRESS MY GRATEFUL APPRECIATION AND THANKS.

ANY INFORMATION ON BONHAMS IS INVITED AS WELL AS NOTICE OF ERRORS. IT IS PLANNED TO ISSUE SUPPLEMENTS CONTAINING CORRECTIONS AND ANY ADDITIONAL DATA SECURED AFTER THIS ISSUE.

RESPECTFULLY,

ELMER B. HAZIE

Dear Mr. Haze:

This will authorize you to use any information in the Bonham Booklet published by our father, Emmet L. Smith.

We are very pleased that you are bringing this booklet up to date.

PREFACE

This booklet was started at first to include only my mother's family, but others as well as myself became interested and it now includes many branches. The object is to save the story of the older Bonham's, who are fast leaving us. A few years hence and these stories could not be obtained. Some of the older ones have already died during the two years taken in making this collection. Others have not answered letters of inquiry, but every Bonham name obtainable was requested to write. Some letters have not been used because the same information had been furnished by an older member of the same family.

No attempt was made to write a book on the Bonham family and no statement was given out to that effect. Possibly these collections may be the means of starting someone to write a book on the family. Several have reported that their Bonham parent had intended to write a family book, but in no case did they complete the task. The letters herein have been rewritten several times in order to have them correct and to include as much Bonham information as possible.

Quotations from books concerning the Bonhams are given only on authority of the book. Note the year the book was printed. The tradition in the family is quite uniform, and it is only necessary to read to get the facts as to the origin of the Bonhams.

It was impossible for the writer to bring each family up to date, but each one can add a page containing their record. The collecting of this information has shown that many families do not keep any regular record.

Additional information, particularly of the older Bonhams is requested by the writer.

Many of the living only think of today. Pray, think of yesterday - of the dead and their pioneer hardships, their religious character and persecutions and give those of tomorrow - the future generations - the origin of the Bonham character upon which to build.

If this collection should be the means of saving the story of the older Bonhams, then it will have accomplished its object.

Respectfully submitted,

Emmet L. Smith, M D.

Re. BONHAM COAT OF ARMS

I am not qualified to write on the subject of Heraldry, but am glad to pass along such information as I have gathered regarding the Bonham Coat of Arms. My information is that Coat of Arms originally were to be displayed on shields so as to distinguish friend from foe in battle. Prior to 1417, a Coat of Arms was available to anyone, regardless of character, for a fee.

During the reign of Henry V (1417) a Royal Proclamation was made that no man in the future be allowed to bear Arms (Coat of Arms) without authority.

The College of Arms or Heralds College was organized in 1483 to handle matters pertaining to Coats of Arms. After that only persons of good character and standing were permitted to receive or to retain Coats of Arms. The most successful of the methods for regularizing the use of Arms was by Visitations (official visits or inspection). Heraldic officers, under royal authority, made systematic tours and all who used Arms were summoned to establish their right. Such visitations may have been made before the 16th Century, but records begin with 1528-29, and continue at intervals of about 30 years (one generation) until 1686. Original records in possession of College of Arms have not been published.

A. C. Fox-Davies in 'Armorial Families' an authority, quotes: "In a few cases where the Arms are found on the early rolls, it is possible to take an old Coat back approximately to its date of origin, but in the bulk of English cases, one can do no more than refer to the Visitations, which may or may not be the date of origin."

When a Coat of Arms was granted only a description was given, the artist then selected, added leaves, flowers, ribbons and other embellishments which generally have no significance but are purely ornamental. The principal charges are within the face of the shield. It is customary to represent the Arms as placed on a shield, but this is not necessary. After all, a Coat of Arms was not shaped like a shield and as the Coat of Arms was displayed on all kinds of objects, they had to be adapted to the shape. Nevertheless, it is better to keep to the natural form of a shield for general purposes.

Crests outside a shield do have a meaning and are usually separate grants or awards. Motto is not part of the Coat of Arms and is not inheritable, except at will.

The helmet is placed over a Coat of Arms and by the metal from which it is made denotes the rank of the person whose arms are beneath it.

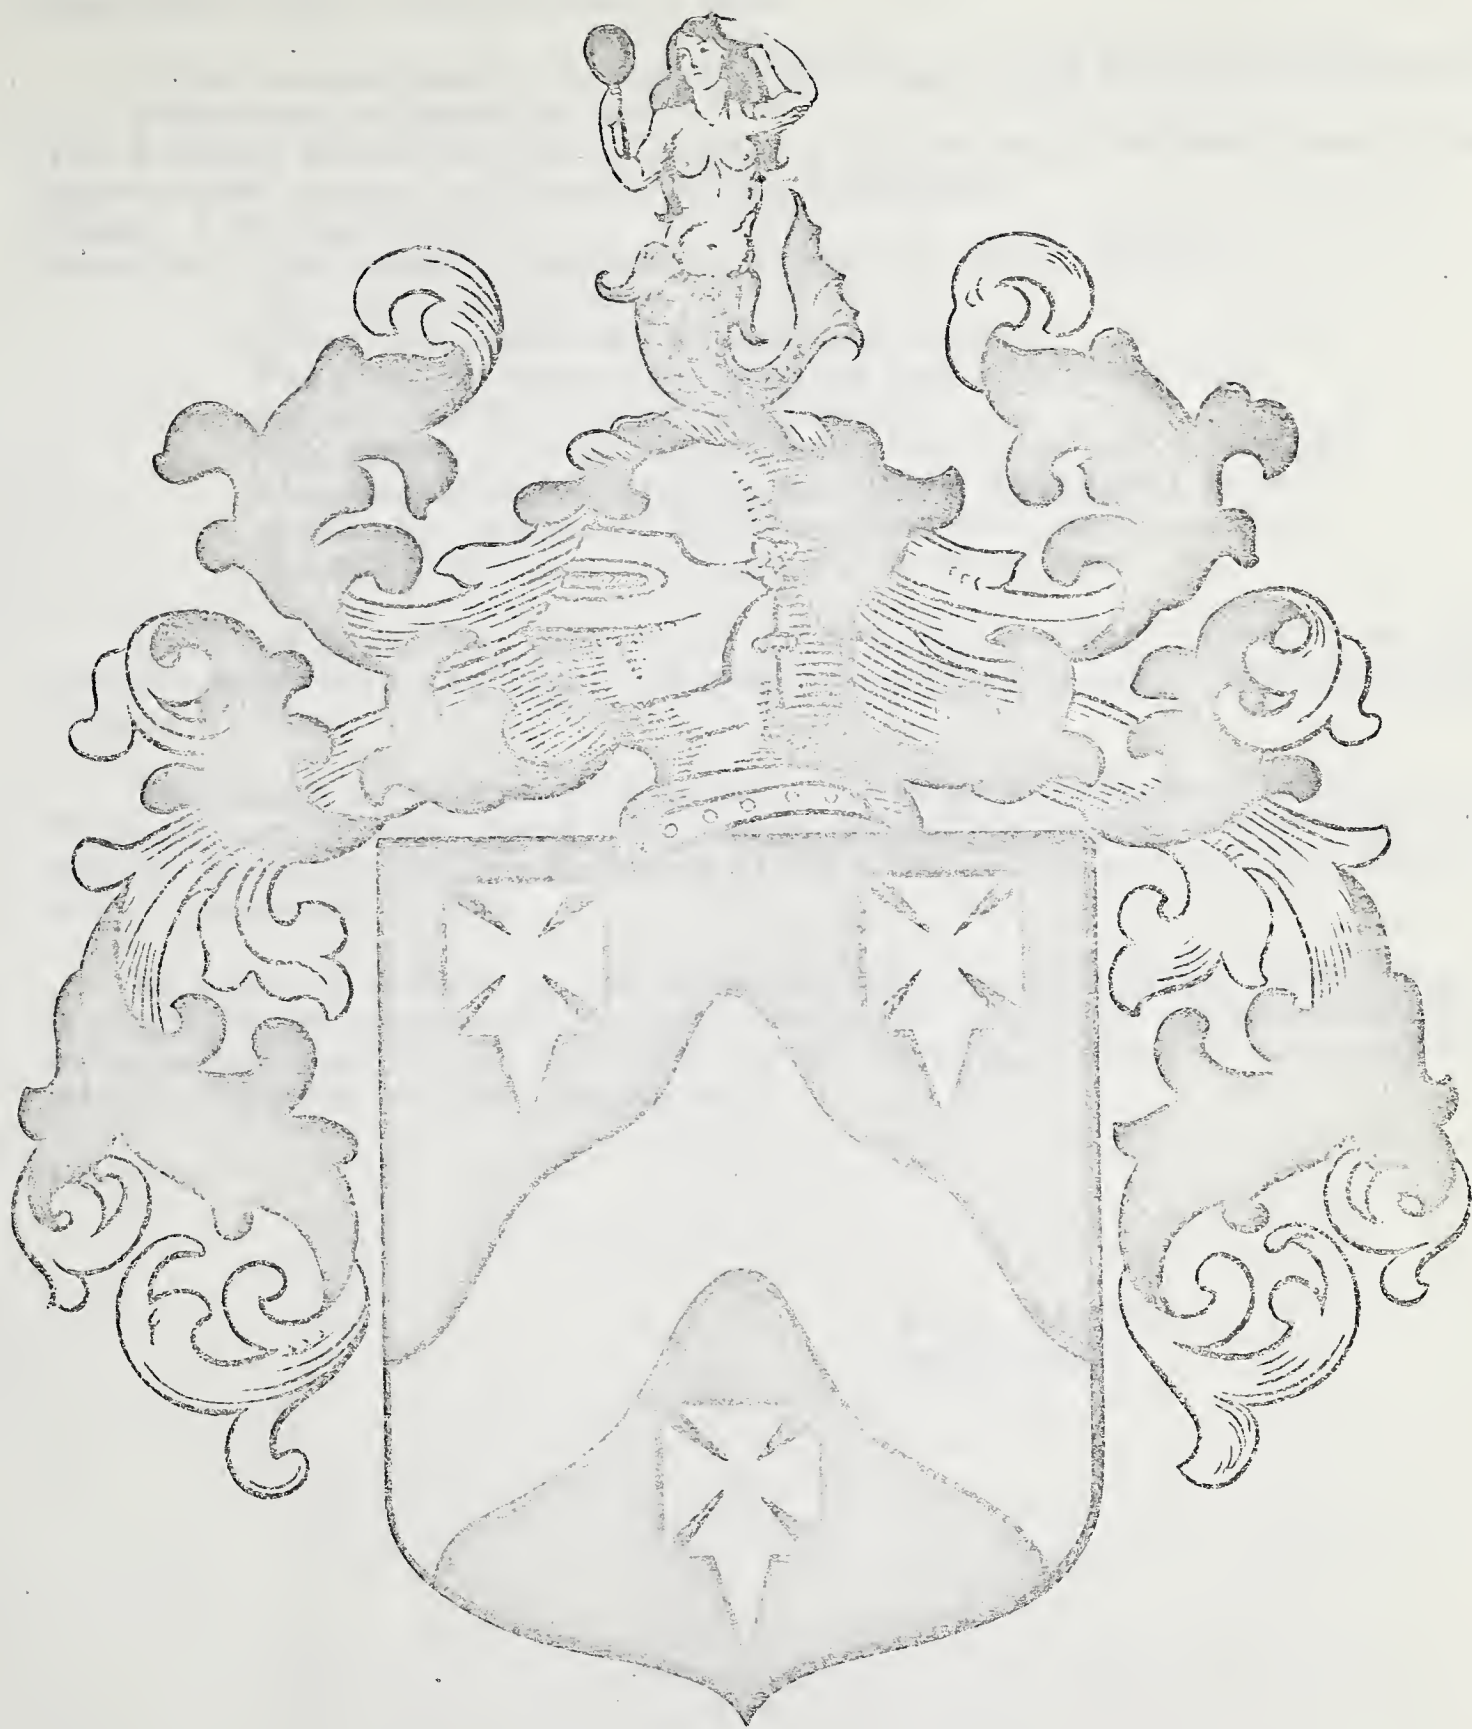

Helmets of sovereigns are formed of burnished gold.

Princes and Peers are silver.

Knights, Esquires and Gentlemen are polished steel.

The closed helmet in profile is for esquires and gentlemen. The helmet is not specifically granted and is a matter of inherent right so that a person would not be wrong in placing a helmet above a shield.

I found several Bonham Coat of Arms in the Libraries throughout the country. I made no attempt to determine when or why a Coat of Arms was granted. Rather I was interested only in finding which Coat of Arms the American branch of Bonhams were entitled to use.

Bonham

For that purpose I consulted the College of Arms and under date of June 29th, 1953, they wrote (for a fee):

"The Bonham family recorded their Pedigree and Arms during Heralds Visitations of Essex in 1634."

The Arms of the family were: "Gules, a chevron wavy between three crosses, patée-fitché argent, a Crescent for the difference.

Crest: a Mermaid proper.

Symbolic: The shield is red (Gules) a military color, symbol of valor and courage.

Silver (argent) denotes purity and justice.

The chevron represents the roof tree of a house and was awarded for outstanding service.

The cross in all its forms indicates the gallant thousands who journeyed to Palestine during the Crusades. The mermaid, symbol of the lure of the sea, commemorates the hardships and perilous adventures at sea.

I will not go into the difference, as it has no bearing, having to do with various emblems (crescents) that sons are entitled to use on their individual Coat of Arms.

This Coat of Arms may be found in the Pennsylvania State Library, Vol. 6, "Colonial and Revolutionary Families of Penn." by Jordan. This Coat of Arms was in use by the English Bonhams at the time George and Nicholas Bonham came to America in 1635.

By use of a certain Coat of Arms you assert your descent from the person to whom those Arms were granted, confirmed or allowed. Your greatest satisfaction from this Coat of Arms is the knowledge that your ancestors were people of quality and good character.

BONHAM - ENGLISH LINE

Compiled in the most part by Mrs. Ross McCoy (dav. of Rebecca Bonham) of York, Pa. who says our oldest records go back to "Merrie England."

1273 Maurice De Bonham is on record in Co. Sommerset in 1273.

1300 According to Bardsley and to Burke, the family of Bonham was settled in Willshire as early as 1300.

I. Sir John Bonham was Knight of the Shire. He had a numerous family and was succeeded by his son

II. Nicholas, who became Knight of the Shire and upheld the family traditions and name, during the years subsequent to 1356.

1356 Six members of this family are on record as members of Parliament and High Sheriff down to the year 1605.

George married Miss Bishop and he and his brother Nicholas are mentioned in the Will of their father, which was made in the County of Essex in July 1629. By Ed Wm. Bonham

(In Western Reserve Library, Cleveland, Ohio, 6-24-53 E. B. H.)

In British Museum there is a deed dated 1356 wherein Robert de Bonham, Knight, handed over his moiety of the Manor of Great Wychford in Wiltshire, lands, etc. to his brother Nicholas. On the seal attached to the deed as also that of Thomas Bonham we find the same Coat of Arms. 'Three crosses, patee, fitchee between a chevron wavy.' These arms are (1891) still visible in the east window of Great Wishford Church, and also appear on china which belonged to Pinson Bonham-1791.

'I think it ought to be recorded that our family lost their estates by adhering to the King in the Civil Wars.'

The relationship of George and Nicholas Bonham has been a subject much discussed by genealogists and family researchers of the Bonham line. As most researchers have been interested in line only as far back as the Mayflower few have taken any clear cut stand or given a clear opinion on the relationship of these two Bonhams.

Some have dodged the issue with the casual statement "Nicholas might have been the son of George" or "believed to be brothers."

It remained for S. J. Bonham in Bonham Genealogy 1954 to go on record that George was the father of Nicholas. I have long been of this mind and fully support his opinion.

The basis of my conclusions are as follows:

George Bonham was married in England and evidently his wife died before he came to America in 1635. George did have a brother Nicholas in England and seems reasonable to presume that he was of somewhere near the same age, not twenty-five or more years apart. Evidently George had a son who he named after his brother Nicholas.

According to the best records George's father died about 1629 and no doubt the older brother, William, was placed in charge of the estate, as was the custom in England.

Possibly the arrangement was not to George's liking and possibly having lost his wife decided to seek his fortune in the new world of America.

Just let us suppose that George did not have a son Nicholas and he said to William - "I would like to take my young brother to America with me," and the reply he would no doubt receive - "You most certainly will not."

However if George did have a son Nicholas, William would no doubt say - "You will have to take your boy with you." I can think of no other reason why a man going into a new country would take a child of four to six years old.

The question has been asked - "How did Nicholas get over here?" His name was not on the passenger list of the Phillip, the ship George came on, true. They took the oath of Allegiance at Gravesend on June 20, 1635 which SHOWS THEY WERE TOGETHER ON SAILING DATE. No doubt George signed the oath for both of them.

After reading many records of passengers to America it appears to me that there was no uniform system of recording passengers, as it was entirely for the captain to decide how to list them. Hence one might list, John Jones, wife and small son, another John Jones, wife and child, and another John Jones and family, and another such as the captain of the Phillip might list the male passengers only. Under these conditions it is likely that only George was listed as Nicholas was just a small child. Proof of this is to be found in the list of male inhabitants of Plymouth Colony made in 1643 in which the names of males 16 to 60 years of age available for military duty, lists George Bonham, but not Nicholas who was then still under 16 years of age.

On this basis Nicholas was 29 years old at the time of his marriage to Hannah Fuller in 1659, she being 23 years old, born in 1636.

I have never credited the report that Nicholas was "an aged man" at time of his death in 1684, nor the report of Nicholas "born in England 1612, possibly earlier," with nothing to support the statement, evidently of the opinion that Nicholas was a brother and not the son of George.

Another says - "It may be safely assumed that Nicholas Bonham was born about 1630." He died July 20, 1684 a middle aged man.

Another says - "The date of birth of Nicholas Bonham has not been found in the New England records. Whether in England or New England he must have been born soon after 1630, as the year of his wife's birth was 1636."

"At town meeting the 3rd of October 1662.

Ordered and agreed by ye town the sons of ye present inhabitants shall successively be received as inhabitants and allowed equal Town Privileges and it is further agreed that these following be admitted as inhabitants."

(Among those listed) NICHOLAS BONHAM

This action indicates that Nicholas Bonham was a son of a then inhabitant George Bonham.

INHABITANTS by Louis Effingham de Forest Prominent genealogist

"In the New England towns, those who founded the towns and contributed to the purchase of lands from the Indians were the 'inhabitants' and had the right to decide who, among the later comers, was acceptable as an inhabitant of the town. A man had no right to use the common grazing land, the common wood and water supply until he was thus admitted as an inhabitant. Even if permitted to remain in a town a long period, if he were not admitted as an inhabitant the town was not responsible for him should he become incapacitated through old age or sickness. In order to become a freeman of a Colony, a man must have been previously admitted as an inhabitant of the town and proposed for freeman by the freeman of the town, who vouched for his character. Only freeman had the right of franchise and the right to hold office, military or civil. At first the General Court was composed of the whole body of freeman and performed legislative and judicial functions but as this system became inconvenient deputies were elected from each town to serve in the General Court. The presiding officer of this Court was the Governor of the Colony. The Colonial militia consisted of all able bodied men between the ages of sixteen and sixty."

This explains why Nicholas Bonham was obliged to become an inhabitant upon settling in Barnstable, and also to support the belief that Nicholas was a son of George -- not yet 16 years old in 1643, when all men able to bear arms then resident in the Colony were listed.

GEORGE BONHAM was included in this list.

NEHEMIAH (4) BONHAM LINE

This line has proved to be one of the most controversial of the many Bonham lines.

This can be traced principally to an error in the N. J. Archives records which are in most all the genealogical libraries in the world. The will of Benjamin Martin of Piscataway, N. J., the father of Elizabeth Martin, the second wife of Nehemiah Bonham, is on file in the office of the Clerk of Superior Court of N. J. and in good condition. The N. J. Archives in the abstract of the Benjamin Martin will give the names of the children of Nehemiah Bonham and Elizabeth Martin as Benjamin and Nehemiah, which is in error. They are Benjamin and Hezekiah.

Due to its age, the Clerk's office was reluctant to permit this will to be examined and to have photostatic copies made, rather they insisted on supplying a certified copy which was incorrect. However, a photostatic copy was obtained and on the following page is a photo of that section of the photostat of the will that clearly shows that the Archives records are not correct.

Note the peculiar form of the letter E in Benjamin, Hezekiah and Jersey. This style must have prevalence as we have found the same style elsewhere.

Another reason to discount the abstract records giving the name of Nehemiah to one of the sons, is that Nehemiah already had a son Nehemiah by his first wife, Ann Stout, and it is doubtful that he would give two sons the same name.

After such misinformation is once in print, especially by such authority as the Archives, and accepted and made a part of the family line record, it is difficult to get folks to accept the truth even when shown a photo to prove the error. Hugh Bonham, deceased 12-27-1958, compiler of the Bonham chart in the Library of Congress and other libraries evidently used Archives information as being correct, wrote in 1957: Quote "I give the abstracts no absolute value for they were written long after. But the will recorded in the will book would be more legal. Thos. Bartow was probably the neighborhood will writer as was my father, could have written Hezekiah and the clerk in copying it in the will book more than likely discovered the error and corrected the error if there was one." End of quote. I can not accept the idea that the will was wrong as we have records of both Benjamin and Hezekiah, and the will was accepted by the court as written.

Another report that has been given credence is that Ann Bonham, dau. of Nehemiah was born when the mother was around sixty years of age. According to the best information that I have been able to obtain Ann Bonham dau. of Nehemiah Bonham and Ann Stout was born 8-18-1725 and died in 1769. At the time of her birth Nehemiah was about 22 years old and our records indicate that Ann Stout was about one year younger, born 1704. Ann Bonham m. Benjamin Reeder (neighbors in N. J.) who was born 5-20-1712 and died in 1783. This data from the Reeder family genealogical records which are most complete. No confirmation of Ann Stout's birth date.

M. L. BONHAM, Anderson, S. C. writes:

"Tradition has it that three brothers named Bonham came from England to Virginia early in the 17th Century, about 1636. But the first of our ancestors of whom we have any authentic information is Nicholas Bonham, who came from Barnstable, Mass. about the year 1679, and with others settled the hamlet of Bonhamton, N. J. He married in Mass. Hannah Fuller, a descendant of one of the Pilgrims. From them was descended Absalom Bonham who was born at Bonhamton in the year 1739. At the beginning of the Revolution Absalom who had married Jemima Harker, was living at Frederick City, Md. but he enlisted from New Jersey and became Brevet-Major in the establishment of that State. Absalom and his wife Jemima Harker had: Elizabeth, Malachi and James. Elizabeth married Mr. Dorsey of Baltimore and their descendants are still in that city. Malachi went west soon after the Revolutionary War and his subsequent history is unknown. James moved to S. C. some years after the Revolution and settled in the Colleton district, where he married Hannah Witsell, they had: John and Ann. After the death of his wife he moved to Edgefield District and settled near Red Bank Church in that section, which is now cut off and formed into Saluda County. He married about the year 1795, Sophie Smith, dau. of Capt. Jacob Smith and his wife Sallie Butler, sister of Capt. James Butler, progenitor of the Butler family in S. C. To this union of James Bonham and Sophie Smith were born, Sarah, who married Col. John Lipscomb; Simeon, who married Miss Wardlaw of Abbeville, S. C. he moved to Ala. where he died: Jacob who died at the age of four years: Malachi, who married Martha Ford of Colleton, S. C. moved to Ala. then to Texas where he died in 1861: Eliza., who died at the age of eighteen, unmarried: James, who was killed in the siege of the Alamo, in the war for Texan independence; he never married: Julia, who married Dr. Bowie of Abbeville, S. C. who moved to Ala.: Milledge Luke, the youngest child, was born Dec. 25, 1813, within a mile of the site of Saluda Court House, S. C. which was then a part of Edgefield District. He married Nov. 13, 1845, Ann Patience Griffin, dau. of Col. Nathan L. Griffin a distinguished lawyer of Edgefield, S. C. and his wife Nancy Butler. To this marriage were born, Sallie Butler, who died at the age of sixteen: Richard Griffin, who died at the age of thirty-eight, unmarried; he was at the time of his death Solicitor of the Fifth Judicial Circuit of S. C.: Sophie Smith, who married Col. Robert Aldrich of Barnwell, S. C. who is now Judge of the Second Judicial Circuit: James, who died at the age of thirty-two unmarried; he was prominent as an educator and a lawyer: Milledge Lipscomb, who married Daisy, dau. of Judge Alfred P. Aldrich of Barnwell, S. C. He was Adjutant General of S. C. and is a lawyer at Anderson, S. C.: Annie Elizabeth, who resides in Columbia, S. C.: Julia Ellen, who married Dr. Geo. E. T. Sparkman of Georgetown, S. C. She died in 1906 William Butler, who married Marie Graves, Orange Co. Va. He was a lieutenant in the U. S. Army, serving with distinction in the Philippines and died in 1903; Thomas Seymour, residing in Manila: Patience, who married Gadsden E. Shand, a leading architect, Columbia, S. C. and Frank Pickens, now in California."

JAMES BUTLER BONHAM

There is no question but that James Butler Bonham, one of the heroes of the Alamo, is the best known of any of the Bonhams in America.

While all descendants of Nicholas Bonham in America are distantly related to James Butler Bonham, in most cases it is very distant. The Absalom Bonham (Southern) line are directly related, but there are no direct descendants, as James Butler Bonham was never married.

In my research it is quite common to be told, "Bonham of the Alamo was my Old Uncle John," "was my great uncle" was "brother of my grandfather" and I am sure these statements are made in good faith, having been handed down in the family. As one lady said, "Mr. Hazie, it must be so as my own grandmother told me so," In this case grandma had been misinformed.

From the files of a Texas newspaper the following was found in the handwriting of a Bonham who wrote in good faith, I am sure:

"The town of Bonham, Fannin Co., Texas was named after my great uncle at one time ran a ranch and a store there, he being the same Bonham who was later 'Masicreed' in the Alamo at San Antonio."

The Town of Bonham was first named "Boisd Arc", was changed to Bloomington and in 1843 was changed to Bonham in honor of James Butler Bonham.

To prove how incorrect the Bonham statement above is - I submit the following from the records at Austin, Texas.

James Butler Bonham arrived in Texas Dec. 12, 1835, was commissioned Lieutenant of Cavalry Dec. 20, 1835, and between Jan. 11 and 13 arrived at the Alamo, probably with Jim Bowie. He died in the Alamo, March 6, 1836.

He was actually in Texas less than 90 days so it was impossible for him to have run a store and ranch all while in the army and within 90 days. Another report has had wide circulation that has to do with land supposed to have been owned by James Butler Bonham. The County Recorder at Bonham reports that there have been many inquiries and there is no record of J. B. B. ever having owned any land in Fannin County.

I have a copy of a letter written to Dr. E. L. Smith about 1909 by a Bonham in answer to a family inquiry letter.

"To the best of my knowledge Nehemiah Bonham was my great-grandfather. James Butler was a son of Nehemiah and a brother of my grandfather. His career after leaving Tenn. was interwoven with Jas. Bowie, Dave Crockett and Sam Houston. Quotes "Public History" (I have never been able to locate this. E.B.H.) James Butler Bonham, Dave Crockett and James Bowie went to Texas shortly before the Texas War, from Indiana. J. B. B. secured large land grants from the Mexican Government previous to the Texas Rebellion. Efforts extending through many years have been made to gain possession of the lands without success as the lands are a part of the Texas School domain."

The State Offices at Austin say there is no record of James Butler Bonham having had a Mexican land grant. They said that a state of war existed when J. B. B. arrived in Texas and that he was in Texas less than ninety days. However, Texas voted generous land grants to heirs of those killed at Alamo. In 1918 the Courts awarded 4/5 of 539 1/2 acres, net 512 acres in Comanche Co.

JAMES BUTLER BONHAM

to the heirs of James Butler Bonham. I was curious as to why 1/5 of the land was held and asked H oyt Bonham of Montezuma, Iowa who is an abstract attorney, and he said that in some states where there is no direct descendant that a percentage escheats to the state, and no doubt this was the case here.

Just how the Courts allowed one descendant, a nephew, to claim the entire estate, when there was also a living niece and other nephews living at the time, is a question unanswered.

Montgomery (Alabama)

My dear Mother,

I found this place sickly as the country around, this they tell me is an unusual year throughout (the) state of Alabama for sickness. John*s (1) family (are) and have been well and doing well though not exactly pleased with the life of public housekeeping. There is something attached to it I cannot tolerate myself. John and his wife and children have been remarkably kind and (considerate) it is impossible to be more so--with the kind proffers he has made to be of what assistance he can. I feel deeply sensible of John*s kindness, not soon to be forgotten by me. I would feel gratified that John was aware of my feelings of gratitude.

He has four children, three boys and one girl. You have heard much about Mary Bonham (2) being a spoiled child and disagreeable, but I have never been more agreeably disappointed in my life. She is a very pretty sweet girl and not more affected or spoiled than any pretty young girl would be. She has a strong favor of her Aunt Julia (3) as you have heard and thinks the highest of her and talks much about her, Mary's (is ?) a beautiful brunet (sic) complexion and not dark skin--as said-- her eyes are dark hazle (sic) color, looking black at a little distance. Her disposition is cheerful instead of petulant and her manners and address (especially) with older persons I think (very good).

Sally Bonham (4) is much improved, she has been very kind all send {their love when I write, they say. My health is good yet. I have waited one or two days for John to go do to (Simeon's) (5). I was more than two weeks getting here, owing to rain and horse.

Sumpter (sic) Mays (6) has been sick, but now well, though thin and his wife has been sick and (is?) just about, very thin, weak and pale. Her little daughter Sarah, well, a very pretty blue eyed child. Both of them very kind to me indeed.

I'll not write to you abo ut the country (until?) I get to Simeon's which (will be ?) the first of next week.

Tell all--Aunt Waldo (7), Malachi (8) and wife, Jacob (9) and wife, Dr. Bowie (10) and wife, Dr. Mays (11) and wife, Benjamin (12), and Milledge (13)--you see I have an affectionate remembrance(of them?) and will write after settled.

Your affectionate son,

James B. Bonham

(Addressed) Mrs. Sophia Bonham, Mount Willing Post Office, Edgefield District, So. Car.)

ITEMS OF INTEREST CONCERNING BONHAM FAMILY OF YORK, PA.

Absalom Bonham-son of Rev. Malachi Bonham-moved from New Jersey to the vicinity of Fredrick, Maryland where he was living in 1776 with his brother Malachi. He was visiting in N. J. when the War of The Revolution began and his brother enrolled him as a member of the Maryland Company of which he (Malachi) was a Lieutenant. Upon Absalom's return to Fredrick, he had his name removed from the list and returned to N. J. - enlisting from that State was promoted successively - Ensign-Lieutenant and Captin and was mustered out with the Brevet rank of Major. He was one of the original members of the Society of Cincinnati -belonging to the N.J. Chapter. When his death occurred in 1794 in Lincolnton, N. Car. his funeral was attended with military honors. His funeral dress being the full regimentals of a Major of the Continental Army.

Samuel Cox Bonham left Lincolnton, N. Car. and came to Pa. in early manhood where he married Margaret Dritt of York County, whose father was Gen. Jacob Dritt of the War of the Revolution and whose home situated on a hill overlooking the Susquehanna River was a large gray stone Colonial dwelling with family burial plot adjoining. The graves of Margaret Bonham and her infant son, Absalom, who died three days after his mother's death are still to be seen there and the house which was originally known as "Fort Cresap" and later as "Dritts Ferry" is today in excellent condition and is occupied by its present owners.

After Samuel Cox Bonham's second marriage to Mrs. Elizabeth Stayman Strickler, a widow with a baby daughter, they moved to York, where they spent the remainder of their lives and were buried in Prospect Hill Cemetery. Samuel Cox Bonham was a prominent member of Lodge #43, Ancient York Masons, which he joined in Lancaster Co., Feb. 9, 1820 and in which he continued membership until the time of his death in 1856. He was a well known Democrat and intimate friend of James Buchanan who wrote him asking his support for candidacy for the President of the United States which support Mr. Buchanan would undoubtedly have received but for the death of Judge Bonham that year.

The following excerpts are from the obituary notice and "Tribute of Respect from the Bench and Bar of York County." Obituary "It is our painful duty to announce this week the death of the Honorable Samuel C. Bonham which trans- at his residence in this place on Wednesday morning. Monday he participated in the reception of Mr. Buchanan, but on Monday evening was seized with a severe illness which terminated his career. Judge Bonham has occupied a prominent position in this community and has filled important public stations.

He was for ten years one of the Associate Judges of this County and was one of the representatives of York in the Convention that amended the State Constitution."

Tribute of respect. "At a meeting of the Bench and Bar of York County held on Friday, May 16, 1856 on motion of W. C. Chapman, Esquire, the Honorable Robert J. Fisher was called to the chair, etc. etc.

"Resolved - That we have heard with feelings of deep regret of the death of the Honorable Samuel C. Bonham - Resolved that in his death we have lost a kind friend; Society a valuable and highly respected member; and his family a gentle and affectionate husband and father. Resolved - that as members of the Bar our intercourse with him a Judge was always pleasant and agreeable and that his manner toward us was uniformly courteous and polite, etc. etc.

"From the York Democratic Press" DeWitt Clinton Bonham, left his home in early manhood and bought a plantation near Vicksburg, Miss., where he married Mary T. Twin and lived the life of a successful southern planter until he entered the service of the Confederate Army where he attained the rank of Colonel and died of camp fever at Camp Beauregard, Ky. With his wife he frequently visited his family in York and after his death his wife continued her visits with the family by whom she was greatly beloved.

Jacob Dritt Bonham and his wife Matilda G. Zook had one child, whom they named after DeWitt Clinton Bonham. This child and his mother probably died soon as the family tradition was that Jacob went west in early manhood and was never heard from.

Elizabeth Stayman Bonham, second wife of Samuel C. Bonham was artistically inclined and it was from her that her twin sons Horace and Milton inherited their artistic and literary talent and tastes. She was educated at the boarding school of the Moravian Seminary at Lititz, Pa. and came of a family whose interests were on the cultural side of life. Her first cousin was the mother of Bayard Taylor, Poet, Novelist and one time, Minister to Italy.

Elizabeth Rebecca Bonham who married T. Addison Denny, lived for some time in Maryland and later returned to York with her young daughter, and son where the children grew up and went to school. Later they removed to Rome, Ga. where they resided permanently.

Sarah Ross Bonham known as "Sally" presumably was called after her Aunt who married Rice F. Ross. She visited with Ross relatives in the South according to family tradition and was for a time engaged to be married to a cousin named Ross, who was said to be lame. She died unmarried however. Like her mother she went to boarding school at the Moravian Seminary at Lititz, Pa.

While abroad he wrote a series of articles on "Foreign Travel" for the Philadelphia Press.

TO: Alice Hedges (Absalom Bonham Line)
FROM: MILLEDGE LOUIS BONHAM 10-3-1940

ROBERT FULLER of Redenhall Parish, in Norfolk County, England, had two sons, EDWARD and SAMUEL, both of whom came to Plymouth Colony in the MAYFLOWER in 1620. EDWARD brought with him his son, SAMUEL.

(G. M. McKenzie & N. O. Rhodes - COLONIAL FAMILIES OF THE U. S. 7 Vols. N. Y. 1970-1920, Vol. VII 205-209)

(J. Savage -- GENEALOGICAL DICTIONARY OF THE FIRST SETTLERS OF NEW ENGLAND 2 Vols. Boston 1860, Vol. II 318)

When the boy, SAMUEL, grew up, he moved to Scituate, thence to Barnstable - then in the Colony of Plymouth, now in the state of Mass. There on April 8, 1635 he married Jane, daughter of Rev. John Lothrop said to have been the first Baptist in New England (Savage, as above, Vol. II 318) - William Bradford HISTORY OF PLYMOUTH PLANTATIONS 2 vols. Boston 1912 Vol. II 419) - (A. Otis GENEALOGICAL NOTES OF BARNSTABLE FAMILIES Barnstable 1881, 371-372)

HANNAH, the daughter of Samuel and Jane Lothrop Fuller, married at Barnstable on January 1st, 1658 NICHOLAS BONHAM who is the first ancestor we are positive about. (Savage - Vol. I 210; Otis 371; Savage Vol. II 218; W. T. Davis ANCIENT LANDMARKS OF PLYMOUTH 2 Vols. Boston 1883 Part III, 115). Nicholas later moved to Long Island, thence to New Jersey. Of his several children we are interested only in HEZEKIAH, the executor of the will of Nicholas. (New Jersey Archives, Series 2 XXI, 72, XXXIII, 49; will of NICHOLAS BONHAM in Liber. A, Records of East Jersey, p. 259) O. E. Monette FIRST SETTLERS OF YE PLANTATIONS OF PISCATAWAY & WOODBRIDGE: OLDE EAST NEW JERSEY, Los Angeles 1930-1936, Part III, 406-407.

We are not interested in Hezekiah's first marriage to Mary Dunn and the four children thereof. In about 1699 he married Ann Hunt who bore him one daughter (Temperance, God save the mark) and fourteen sons of whom thirteen had names ending in 'IAH'. Our ancestor was Rev. Malachiah, Seventh Day Baptist preacher. (Monette Part IV 588-589) ABSALOM was the son of Malachiah's first wife, Jemima Harker and married his first cousin, Jemima Harker. At the outbreak of the Revolution, Absalom was living in Fredrick, Md. and was a post rider. He did not like the officers of the local company, so returned to his native New Jersey and enlisted in the Fourth Battalion, Second Establishment. He was commissioned 2nd Lieutenant on Nov. 1, 1777, transferred to the First Battalion and promoted to 1st Lieutenant March 27, 1780. He was mustered out as brevet-captain April 1783. He served in Greene's army of South Carolina (W. S. STRYKER-OFFICIAL REGISTER OF THE OFFICERS AND MEN OF N. J. IN THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR Trenton, 1872, 39, 40, 89) W. H. Powell LIST OF OFFICERS IN THE ARMY OF THE U. S. 1778-1900 New York 1900; NEW JERSEY ARCHIVES 2, IV, 155). After the Revolution, Absalom and his family moved to North Carolina, and his son James who had served as a lad of fifteen in the siege of Yorktown, kept on into South Carolina. He was twice married, first to a widow who bore him two children. After her death he married Sophia Smith, whose mother was a Butler, and moved to what is now Saluda County, S. C.

The Butlers had been prominent Whigs during the Revolution, and several served in the army, at least two being killed by British and Tories. (See Edward McGrady's SOUTH CAROLINA DURING THE REVOLUTION 2 vols. 1902-04) and D. D. Wallace's HISTORY OF SOUTH CAROLINA 4 Vols. New York 1934; T. D. Jervey's THE BUTLERS OF SO. CAROLINA; IN S. C. HISTORY AND GENEALOGICAL MAGAZINE Vol. IV 296 etc.)

TO: Alice Hodges
FROM: MILLEDGE LOUIS BONHAM

Sophia bore James eight children. The fourth was the third son Malachi Mark, your grandfather. The fifth was James Butler Bonham 1807-1836, who was killed at the Alamo, San Antonio, Texas, March 1836. The seventh child and third daughter was Julia Ann Rachael, who married Dr. S. W. Bowie of the neighboring county of Abbeville, and after some years moved with him and their children to Alabama. I presume "Cousin Alabama" knows the the Bowie line better than I do. The eighth child and fifth son was my grandfather, General Milledge Luke Bonham (1813-1890).

What I have said above may be supplemented by the DICTIONARY OF AMERICAN BIOGRAPHY and the BIOGRAPHICAL CONGRESSIONAL DIRECTORY and works cited in the former, (look under "Bonham" "Butler", etc.)

I hope, Alice, that the above is clear and answers "Cousin Alabama's" questions. It may be germane to "Cousin Alabama's" plan to know that Captain Absalom Bonham was a member of the Cociety of the Cincinnati.

My father as his oldest lineal descendant is now a member.

Presumably the various records of the Society are in the Alabama State Library and can be consulted if desired.

SAMUEL BONHAM OF N. J.--ENGLAND-VIRGINIA

There does not seem to be any clear record of the line of Samuel Bonham (4) son of Hezekiah and his first wife Mary Dana. This Samuel was a half-brother to the many LAH Bonhams, sons of Hezekiah and his second wife Ann Hunt.

As Enoch Anderson called Samuel (5) and Ephriam grandsons in his will it is my conclusion that he Sameel (4) married a daughter of Enoch Anderson. The son Samuel (5) may well have been born in London, Eng. as the records of N. J. 1722-27 listed Samuel (4) as "Merchant of London" and it is of record that he travelled between London and America. The family legend is that he returned to London and remained for quite a number of years and possibly the wife was in Eng. when Samuel (5) was born.

The tradition of the Samuel Bonham line of Virginia is that he was born and raised in England, married a French Lady and settled in Va. Samuel Bonham (5) married Ruth Boyer (French Lady) 5-24-1747 and it is my conclusion that he had a son Samuel (6) born about 1748-9 and that Samuel (5) and Samuel (6) did settle in what is now Clark Co. Va. As Samuel (5) also had sons Benjamin and Elam, of record about 1755 it does not seem possible that Samuel (5) had no more children until Elisha Landen Bonham was born in Va. in 1772. A grandson of Elisha said that Elisha was the first born. So the conclusion is that Samuel (5) married the French Lady spoken of in the family legend and had the son Samuel (6). who had Elisha 1772, Jesse 1777 and Samuel (7) ch 1779.

It is also necessary to take into consideration that grandfather as spoken of then could mean grandfather, great-grandfather or even great-great-grandfather. The same applies to the use of the word cousin as it could mean anything from first to seventh cousin.

Samuel Bonham of Sherman, Texas, wrote Dr. Smith in 1908-"My grandfather was raised in England came to Virginia, lived in Clark Co. and married Mary Ann Sowers." From this one could be led to believe that it was just that way, but that is not correct, as mentioned above. There is no doubt that Samuel Bonhams (5) and (6) were the first Bonhams to settle in that part of Va. and were squatters on the lands of Lord Baltimore or Lord Fairfax. When the English saw there was a good chance that they would be dispossessed of their lands they sent out agents to deal with the many squatters who were on their lands. Leonard Eckstine was one of the agents who were sent to make the best deals possible and give titles to those those that made settlement in money, horses, produce or anything else of value that was available. In 1773 Leonard Eckstine gave clear title to Samuel Bonham for land on which he had squatted for several years. Samuel Bonham (7) who married Ann Sowers was not yet born at that time.

Near Summit point Va. is a house which is supposed to be about 216 years old and I believe it to be as the main frame work and floor beams and floors are of hard wood and many, many years old. The outside and window casings have been modernized and the house was occupied by Isaac Bonham in 1955. On the first trip there I came away with the impression that the house was built by the first Bonhams and had been in the family ever since. On my second trip though I did not find out much else I did find that the house was built by an Irish squatter family and that Mrs. Bonham descended from that family. Three families squatted there in the same neighborhood, an Irish, a Scotch and the Bonham families. The stone house where the Scotch family settled would be seen about a half a mile away. However, the best information I could get as to the Bonham land was "up a piece". No record of who might have been the wife of Samuel (6) father of Elisha Landen, Jesse and Samuel (7) who married Mary Ann Sowers in 1805. The family legend is that Samuel Bonham (5) returned to Penn. and died there. Evidently he had gone to Va. with Samuel (6). Samuel (5) was in the 1790 census of Penn. with his son, Benjamin.

SAMUEL BONHAM, age 76, Sherman, Texas writes:

R. C. BONHAM, Concord, Tenn. writes:

"There was a Bonham who lived in or near Shenandoah, Va. during 1861-65 who had a daughter Emma. A Federal Officer, a beau of hers and another officer on a visit at her father's house were attacked by six of Mosby's men. It was a hot fight and the Mosby's lost two killed and two wounded. I heard of the incident of Miss Emma and the Federal Officer as reported from the campfire of the G A R, but I do not remember where now."

"When Eastham and Bolling reached the top of a hill, in view of the residence of Col. Daniel Bonham, they saw their three companions dashing off at full speed towards the house, while two Federal soldiers, one of whom they afterwards learned was Lieut. Eugene Ferris, of the 13th Mass Infantry, were running from the house to the stable. Spurring their horses they galloped on, but before they reached the gate, which led to the stable, they heard a pistol shot, and saw Charles Wiltshire fall. He was at the stable door with his pistol pointed in the door. Then several shots were fired in rapid succession, and as they went through the gate, they met Gill and Orrick, both of whom were wounded. Ferris had come out from the stable, and unharmed by the shots of Eastham and Bolling, secured Wiltshire's pistol and mounted Wiltshire's horse, while his orderly, in obedience to his command, mounted and leading Ferris' horse, the two started for the gate. By this time Bolling also was wounded, but he with Eastham started to follow the retreating Federals. In the road Bolling seized the orderly and pulled him from his horse. Ferris turned on Eastham, who fired, inflicting a slight wound and then raised his pistol to knock him from his horse, but Ferris avoided the blow and set off in the direction of his camp followed by Orrick and Bolling. Eastham endeavored to cut him off by getting around in his front, but he made his escape. Eastham went back to look after Wiltshire, but was told he was dying and a young lady handed up his belt and holsters. Just then Orrick and Bolling came riding up, shouting, "Get out quick, Ridley, the Yankees are coming!" - "Come on, Old Steamboat, we must get out of this," said Eastham, as he gave a touch of his spur to his horse, to which his comrades had given that title, and the three Rangers started on the homestretch. Wiltshire died April 4th."

Mrs. ROSE BONHAM PERRY, Exira, Iowa writes:

"I recall the incident which happened at Col. D. S. Bonham's (my father) place, though I was just ten years old. Can remember it well. The story is very correct, as my older sister could tell you, as she was a sweetheart of Lieut. Ferris. Her name is Emma Bonham Perry of New York City."

A. F. BONHAM, age 61, Chilhowie, Va. writes:

"As far back as I can remember of hearing my father speak of the older Bonham's, I can state that he always said that only one family, who were Scotch-Irish, ever came across the ocean from Ireland. Item,

I give to my son, Hezekiah Bonham, the above mentioned tract of land containing seventy acres, which I have William Bonham's obligation for, which I do order that the said William Bonham do make to the above Hezekiah Bonham a good deed agreeable to the before named obligation.

Item,

I give to my grandchildren, Nancy and Sarah Ball, if they stay till of age, each one bed and one cow and six sheep, one spinning wheel and a chest.

I do appoint allow my well beloved wife Naomi to be sole Executor of my last will and testament, and do hereby utterly disallow, revoke and disannul all and every other testaments, wills, legacies and executions by me in any wise before named, willed, and bequeathed, ratifying this my last will and testament, in witness hereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this day and year above written.

(11) CAZADA b 2-18-1843 d 12-25-1843

For many years there has been a question as to the origin of this line, or as to the parents of Hezekiah.

Andrew Fulton Bonham a grandson of Hezekiah Bonham stated that he did not know who his great-grandfather was. Andrew Fulton did a great deal of searching, but mostly by correspondence, as I am sure he did not search the records of Washington and Smythe Counties or he would have found the same information that I have and which has been there all these years. His son Hugh G. Bonham later made up a Bonham Chart that has been accepted by many as correct in which he lists Moses and Rebecca Park Bonham as the parents of Hezekiah Bonham who married Esther Scott. In the first edition of the BONHAM book I accepted the record of the Virginia Bonhams as supplied by Hugh Bonham, as at that time I had no proof that his records were not correct, though I was not in agreement with his records.

I have never found any records to prove that Moses and Rebecca Bonham had children, though I think it reasonable to presume that they may have had possibly three children and that one of them was Moses Jr. who died in Belmont Co. Ohio ca 1814. Possibly the other children, if any, were girls. When Rebecca was appointed administrator of the estate of Moses who was killed in Revolutionary War in 1782, there was no mention of children. An authority stated that if there were children that they would most likely have been mentioned.

EXTRACTS FROM LETTERS OF ANDREW FULTON BONHAM

"This genealogy is a strange thing, the more you trim and prune it down the bigger and taller it gets to be." To E. B. Haver 1-12-1933

"I know of no Moses in the family and very few Jacobs."

"Might not Joseph and Naomi have come from Loudoun Co. to Wythe?"

"Might not my father who was Joseph, have been from this Joseph Bonham?"

"My fathers middle name was Park. I think his grandmothers name was probably Park." To Mary B. Whitson 12-14-1925

In speaking of Joseph Park Bonham, his father. "The name Park comes in from the feminine side of the family." To E. B. Haver 10-27-1932
To me (E. B. Hazie) this is proof enough that the grandparents of Joseph Park Bonham were Joseph and Naomi Park Bonham.

"I feel right much discouraged in our efforts to trace the genealogies of these Bonham families. Why those dear, old, good people did not keep better records, I do not know. We might learn a lesson from them and henceforth strive to do better along this line." To E. B. Haver 3-1-1932

"I wish I had the picture of all the dear old Bonhams. They are a great family. I do not know that they were great financially or educationally or famous for worldly honors, but I do believe they are great for their goodness. I have never heard of a criminal by that name." To E. B. Haver 3-1-1932

"Mrs. Pedigo of whom you speak is a grand daughter of my oldest brother Robert Scott Bonham. How she gets her genealogy back to Moses Bonham, I do not know." To E. B. Haver 3-24-32

"I often think how distressingly strange it is that I do not know the name of my great-grandfather. Yet I am not alone in this respect." Whitson 10-19-30

"I know none of the heirs mentioned in the will of Joseph and Naomi Bonham." To Mary Whitson 12-14-1925

From the above statements of Andrew Fulton Bonham it is plain that he thought Joseph and Naomi might have been the parents of Hezekiah.

Joseph Bonham's will gave the 70 acre home place to his son Hezekiah, and ordered his son, William, to give Hezekiah a good deed for the same. Smythe Co. DeedBook #4 pages 131-132 shows a deed from Hezekiah and Esther Bonham to their son, James, 5-3-1845 as follows, extract: "by recent survey 71 acres, more or less, being a part of the tract of land patented to Jonathan Bishop, 4th of June, 1794, containing 327 acres by survey bearing the date of 10th Jan. 1792. On the south fork of the Holsten River in Smythe Co.

This land was originally in Washington Co. until Smythe Co. was formed in 1836. The Washington Co. records show the transfer of this land from Jonathan Bishop to William Bonham. The records do not show a deed from William to Hezekiah, but the county clerk said it could have been transferred by court order or entry and no deed made.

The Washington Co. Court House was destroyed by fire years ago and many of the records lost.

To me this clearly proves that Hezekiah who married Esther Scott was the Hezekiah, son of Joseph mentioned in his will.

Copy of a letter from James Mountain to Jos. P. Bonham his wife's uncle

Granger City, Tennessee, Mar 7, 1852

Dear Uncle and Aunt,

I one time take oportunity of writing a few lines to you for the first all though I often thought of wrighting to you before but have often neglected it untill now I will inform you that we are all tolerable good health at this time hoping these few lines will find you all enjoying the same blessing I do not no that I have anything of importance to wright now after all my long waiting but i will tell you that we have some bread and meat and plenty of milk and butter so I think we will not suffer for want of something to eat flower is three dollars and a half per hundred to strong of cash for poor folks to eat mutch cake James has taken in an apprintes boy for three years to learn the trade and he is making no trade accounts this year all cash accounts and then he will take trade accounts from them that soots him he is getting a large run of custom this year and the people says that they think he will get more work to do than he will be able to stand up to but he says that is what he likes to hear he will only stick closter to it in hopes of working him out a little home of his own and I would be verry glad indeed if we could get a little farm where so that our children would have some employment that would be a benefit to them we have no school to send them to know and so they are idle we have had the sevierest winter that almost ever was known in this country on the first cold spell which was a little before crismus their avery painful surcumstance took place about a mile below here a mother of four childrens was stooped down before a large fire agiving some tea to her sick child an her close ketch afire and was ablase before she knew it she tried to drownd out the fier with water but failed and before any person could get to hur she was burned so bad that she died the next evening she was in hur proper mind as long as she lived and complained of nothing mutch only being cold. Uncle Joe I have saw some sites this fall and winter I saw two hogs that they said waid more than 7 hundred each I thought was a big sight but I saw a little sight which was mutch greater to me than that that was two dwarfs the eldest was 25 years old and she was gest 39 inches hih the other one was eighteen years old and she was only 32 inches high they looked womanly in their faces and brests but were so small I could but gase with wander and asstonishment at them narrow escape their was three men kentucky stalk drivers were on their way home on yesterday a week ago over on holstien river their fell a tree among them and kild one of their horses under the rider but did not hirt any of them mutch one of the men said that he was not hurt atall but limbs brusht him from his head to his feet the mans name whoose horse was kild was henry clay grandson of old henry man proposes but god disposes we are about to loose some of our neighbours cal Mcginneys has sold and is going to scatter his famely about and he himself is going to start to texas shortly to loock him out a home last sabbath I heard a letter red from arkansaw witch say the like of the emegrants never was known and witch makes provisions very scarce and hard to get now I must brag a little on my fine boy he is not ten months old yet he cant walk but soon will I think he can get up bu anything and stand by it he is very large for his age and one of the best children I have ever sean and uncle I want you to rite to me I want to hear from aunt pop? (Mary Pickle) and all the children robert (Robert Scott) and all and the baby (Ann-Emma line) whether it lived or not and what its name is so I believ as I have so little of importance to rite I will bring mine epistle to a close you will please excuse my bad spelling and improper language Wright soon oyes that is one thing I had liked to forget I want you to let me know whether grandmothers funeal has ever been preched and hoo precht so no more at pressant but remaines yours

1. The first part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the success of any business or organization. The author provides a detailed overview of the various methods used to collect and analyze data, highlighting the strengths and weaknesses of each approach. The discussion is supported by numerous examples and case studies, which illustrate the practical application of these techniques in real-world scenarios.

2. The second part of the paper focuses on the challenges faced by researchers in this field. It identifies several key areas where further research is needed, including the development of more sophisticated statistical models and the integration of qualitative and quantitative data. The author also discusses the ethical considerations surrounding the use of personal data in research, emphasizing the need for transparency and informed consent. This section concludes with a series of recommendations for future studies, aimed at addressing the identified gaps and improving the overall quality of the research.

3. The third part of the paper presents a comprehensive analysis of the current state of the field. It reviews the most recent findings and compares them with previous research, highlighting the progress made and the areas that still require attention. The author also discusses the implications of these findings for practice, providing valuable insights for managers and policymakers. This section is supported by a series of tables and figures, which present the data in a clear and concise manner. The paper concludes with a summary of the main findings and a final statement on the importance of continued research in this area.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

During the summer of 1908 R. Ranston Jones, Historian for the Order of Sons and Daughters of the Revolution for the State of Ohio and whose office is at the Custom House, Cincinnati, Ohio called to see me seeking information regarding the military record of my great grandfather John Bonham. He informed me that arrangements were being made to erect a monument on the graves of all Revolutionary Soldiers buried in Hamilton County and while he was of the opinion that John Bonham was eligible to the list he must have more evidence. I became interested in the matter and at once set to work feeling that if my great grandfather was entitled to this work of respect at this late date on account of a display of his fighting blood in his young days; I did not want him to lose it through my ignorance or carelessness. I wrote to his grandson L. N. Bonham at Oxford, Ohio and he only knew that he had a grandfather because all boys necessarily have a grandfather. I also wrote to Aunt Jane Hawk but she knew nothing about her grandfather. Knowing that he married a LaFever in New Jersey. I wrote to the Adjutant General of the State of New Jersey explaining the condition of affairs and asking for any information they might possibly have there of his record. In a few days I received a certificate under the seal of the State certifying that John Bonham served in the militia from Hunterdon County, New Jersey. I sent a copy of the certificate to Mr. Jones and am assured that the name of John Bonham has been placed on the list of eligibles.

In my effort to trace the record of my great grandfather I realized the importance to keep family records and I decided to write a slight biography of my branch of the Bonham family noting some little incidents in the life of each member and while I have no one in my own family to entrust it to I hope it may fall into the hands of some member of the Bonham family who will perpetuate the record.

Among the persons of quality, religious and political exiles who went from Great Britain to American plantations from 1600 to 1700 appears the name of George Bonham 31, registered from the Port of London, June 20, 1635 on the boat Philip for Virginia. In 1644 George Bonham married Sarah Morton at Plymouth, a record of which appears in the Bonham booklet which is a part of this record, and raised a large family. I have spent a great deal of time and thought in my endeavor to trace back to this family of Bonhams but so far I have been unable to find the connecting link and am compelled to start my little biography with my great grandfather.

John Bonham was born in New Jersey in 1758. At the age of 18 he enlisted in the Revolutionary War and served during the war as a private from Hunterdon County, New Jersey. After the war presumably about 1780 he married Mary La Fever, daughter of Elizabeth LaFever, a widow of Hunterdon Co., New Jersey, who was my great great grandmother. Our only record of Elizabeth LaFever shows her death, July 27th, 1806. Aged 76.

Born to John and Mary Bonham, Sarah February 7, 1782, Elizabeth August 26, 1785, Elijah October 1, 1788, John L. January 29, 1790, Aaron R. July 29, 1792, Rhoda October 29, 1794, and Mary October 18, 1797. Of these children I only have knowledge of three John L. - Rhoda and Aaron H. One of the older girls married Henly Smith and lived for several years in the cottage on the Sykes farm across the road from the brick building. I have heard my sister speak of playing with their girls. I have no further knowledge of this family. John L. Bonham married Charlotte Hunt at Elizabethtown, Ohio and to this union were born John Clinton, Louis N., Aaron E., Jacob, Mary, and Kitturah. John Clinton was a Presbyterian Minister lived several years in St. Louis and died in Kansas City, Mo. about 1899. Louis N. is a farmer living at Oxford, Ohio. He has been very prominently identified with the State Agriculture and was at one time Secy. of the State Board for several years. Aaron E. was a school teacher at Elizabethtown, Ohio and my older brother and sister were his pupils. He married Marissa Olinstead and had three children John, Everet, and Kittie. John and Ev. are at Columbus, Indiana. Kittie, I have lost track of. Jacob married Susan Green and had two sons, Clint and Louis. At last accounts Clint was in Iowa and Lou in Wisconsin. When I was a little boy their Mother was a widow and was postmistress at Elizabethtown, Ohio. She afterward married our schoolteacher, Kirby Smith. Mary married William Calloway and reared a large family. William Calloway raised his family upon the farm where my great grandfather originally settled, one mile north of Elizabethtown, Ohio. Their children were Jannis, Emma, Edward, Charles, Kittie, Bonham and Birdie. Jannie married Frank Gable, Emma married Frank McManaman, Ed married Jannie Metson, Charley married Connie Penny, Kitlin married Charley Arnold, Bonham married Clara Fowler, and Bird married Edwon Keys; and after married Frank Gable after her sister Jannie died. Rhoda Bonham married by Noble and they lived in the little log house which sets back against the hill now in the Sykes farm near Berea Church. I remember Aunt Rhoda well. She gave me a cane root riding whip when I was a little boy which came from New Orleans and which she always carried when she was a young lady when she went riding. Their children were John and Martha. John married Olivia and Martha married Aurelius Francis. John is dead and Martha is a widow in California. I still have the little cane whip which Aunt Rhoda gave me. Thomas Hunt was another son of John L. and Charlotte Bonham. Kitturah was a teacher in the public schools at Elizabethtown, Ohio for several years. She was my first teacher and I cherish many pleasant memories of those early school days. She taught me the first song I ever learned "Oh, do not be discouraged". She died about 1896 at the home of her brother Louis N. Bonham at Oxford, Ohio.

My great grandfather John Bonham with his family emigrated to Ohio from Bucks County, Pa. in 1790. They floated down the Ohio river to Cincinnati, Ohio and then traveled by land went to the Whitewater river and located on what is now known as the Aaron Simonson farm which also included part of the Wolber farm. He then built the second log cabin west of the Whitewater river a little south of west from the Suspension bridge where marks of the rivers can still be seen. I remember having seen the old cabin many times when I was a boy. He with his family lived in this cabin until October 1st, 1820, when he died and was buried in a small yard upon a bluff in the Walber farm which overlooks the Simonson farm and the river. At his death, he was 62 years of age. Indians of those days were very numerous and were the only people west of the Whitewater River until our people settled there in 1796. My Great Grandmother, Mary Bonham was a very religious woman and used to take me, of the children, up behind her in horseback, ford the Whitewater River, and ride seven miles east to church services. The old people of those days claimed that she could make a prayer that would put rings around the average preacher of that day. She died November 12, 1821, aged 61 years and was buried by her husband. My Grandfather, Aaron R. Bonham, was Born in Bucks County, Pa. 29th of July, 1792, and came with his parents when four years old to their Ohio farm. In 1811 when 19 years of age he volunteered in a company of Rangers organized under General James Dill, Commanded by Capt. James McGuire, to join General Harrison's Army. This company stood as Minute Men until war was declared June 18, 1812 on Great Britain. In August 1812, they were attached to Major Shattler's Brigade and marched from Lawrenceburg, Ind. to Lebanon, and Piqua, Ohio and then back to Indiana. They built block houses at Brookville, Ind., Tanners Creek and Laughery, and scouted from these until 1813 when they were mustered out. On the 25th day of August, 1815, he married Sarah Guard and they lived happily together for 50 years. After his Father's death he lived awhile in the old home place near the Suspension bridge but moved to Indiana and located permanently at what is called Bonham's cross-roads. On the 26th of January, 1822, he was commissioned a Lieutenant in the Fifteenth Regiment of the Indiana Militia by Governor Jonathan Jennings and his commission is among my papers. As there was no war at this time it is presumed that the militia was such as we have today in the State of Ohio, or there may have been a threatened Indian uprising. There is also among my papers a letter from the Adjutant General of the State of Indiana giving the war record in the War of 1812. Grandmother Bonham was one of the best hearted women that ever lived and in addition to her own family she raised three or four other girls. They were devout Methodists members of Sugar Grove Indiana Church, lived and died in the faith. He died June 7th, 1866, aged 74 years. She died November, 1870, aged 75. They are both buried at the Sugar Grove Indiana burying ground. At my Grandfather's funeral, I had a congestion chill and came very near cashing in. The children born to them were Hannah, May 31, 1816; Elizabeth, October 13, 1817; Elijah November 24, 1819; Ezra January 24, 1822; John P. January 9, 1824; David G. February 14, 1826; Aaron Jr. August 6, 1829; Sarah July 30, 1832; Mary Jane May 28, 1838.

Hannah, Sarah, Eliza. and Aaron died in youth. Elijah married Mary Vandoloh and to them were born Elizabeth, Lucinda, John H. and Mary. Uncle Elijah died soon after the birth of Mary. Lucinda died aged about 13, and Mary aged about 13. Elizabeth married Omar Tousy Jackson and to them were born Lucinda, Frank, Hattie, and Clint. John H. married Sarah Hargitt and to them were born Charles, Maimie, Nora, Alta, and John. John P. Bonham married Sarah Hayes, daughter of Isaac and Priscilla Hayes of Elizabethtown, Ohio, and to them was born one daughter, Elenor. Within a few months after her birth both parents died and she was raised by her Grandmother Bonham. She is now a widow Fox living in Cincinnati, Ohio. David G. Bonham married Martha Tebow, daughter of Peter Tebow, of Elizabethtown, Ohio. They moved to Thayer, Kansas. To them were born Aaron, Frank, Julia, Maggie, Ollin, Winnie and Everett. The latter two were twins. I have had no account of this family for several years past. Mary Jane married Azel Hank and to them were born John, George, and Sarah. John married a Miss Clark. George a Miss Judd, and Sarah also married a Judd. Aunt Mary Jane is a widow living at Bright, Indiana. Ezra Guard Bonham, my father, married Eliza Nailor Ewing, my mother, on February 4th, 1846. They lived until 1860 in Dearborn County, Indiana in the house now owned and occupied by my cousin John H. Bonham. My father built this house soon after he was married and it was there that six of their children were born. In the Spring of 1860, they moved to Elizabethtown, Ohio where they resided until 1876, when they moved to Harrison, Ohio. My Mother died March 26, 1893 and Father died July 8, 1900. Both are buried in Glen Haven Cemetery, Harrison, Ohio. Mother was 70 years of age, and Father 78 at death. The fighting blood in the Bonham family had about exhausted itself with my Grandfather as none of the Bonhams since his day have a war record. My Father did belong to the Home Guards at Elizabethtown, Ohio during the rebellion and was stationed with the company for about a week at North Bend, Ohio to prevent Kirby's Raiders from crossing the River into Ohio. He was also at Camp Dennison, Ohio for a few days and this was the extent of his war service. My war service consisted in running horses to the hills and hiding them from John Morgan's raiders during the Civil War. Bro. Doe being older, of course, took the saddle and the good riding horses and went ahead setting the pace while I followed riding bare backed plugs and the amount of cuticle which I wore from that part of my body which came in direct contact with the horse would have saved many lives by the skin grafting process. I still think I deserve a pension for the suffering I endured during those days in which I ate my meals from the mantle, but have been unable to get the pension agents interested in my case.

The children born to Ezra G. and Eliza N. Bonham were Fannie E., born July 1st. 1847; Sarah B., born February 12, 1849; Aaron C., born Sept. 21, 1851; Jannette, born May 17, 1853; Clint F., May 9, 1855; Charley L., April 17, 1858; M. S. Grant, Dec. 9, 1864, died Dec. 3, 1865 and buried at Elizabethtown, Ohio near the Presbyterian Church.

Fannie E. married Sam P. Bowles, and to them was born one daughter Bonnie B. and she married Everett Mighles, Fannie is now Mrs. Brocket Small and lives at Harrison, Maine.

Sarah Bell married Clark Gibson and to them was born one son Raymond C.

Aaron C. married Minnie M. Matson and to them were born Charley B., Bonnie, and John. Charley B. married Miss Hill. Bonnie married Ed Baker. John married Pearl Glazier.

Jannette married William Dair and to them were born Charlotte, James, Gussie, and Glen. Charlotte married David W. Gray. James married Bertha Tebbs.

Clint F. married Leona S. Arnold and to them were born three daughters. All died in infancy.

Charley L. married Ruth Thomas and to them was born one son, Dair Thomas 12-1-1892, married Jane E. Williams 7-24-1919 - had Owen Dair 12-6-1921, died 10-10-1947 San Diego.

I have been unable to trace back beyond our great grandfather, but I am fully convinced that we are directly descended from George Bonham who came to America in 1635. I may have made some slight mistakes in my little biography, but in the main they are facts.

Signed CLINT F. BONHAM

GEORGE BONHAM (b 1608/9) probably in England, d. April 28, 1704, Plymouth, Mass. age 95 years. Nothing is known concerning his first wife. He married for his second wife, Dec. 20, 1644, Plymouth, Mass., Sarah Morton (b 1608 Leyden, Holland, d Aug. 25, 1691, Plymouth, Mass.) She was the daughter of George Morton and his wife, Julie Carpenter.

There was a George Bonham age 31, who passed the Port of London June 20, 1635 on the ship Phillip bound for America. If this is the same George Bonham of Plymouth then he was 99 or 100 years old at the time of his death, but probably for some reason he may have overstated his age 4 or 5 years on the ship, Phillip.

He owned land in Plymouth, Mass. before 1644, joined the local Militia Aug. 1643. Became freeman in 1657. He was surveyor of lands and highways for a number of years. In 1672 he built a house there that was known many years as the "Leach House". He was a devoted church worker, a useful, much liked and respected citizen of the colony. The Plymouth Church Records record (Vol. 1, pt. 3, p 2, 1620-1859) "George Bonum Sr. dyed April 28, 1704, 95 years old" and in the same record (p 9) "April 28, 1704 dyed our brother, George Bonum, he lived to a good old age, he was a man about all men spoke well of and is gone to receive his crown."

BONHAM, NEHEMIAH, (b ? d ?) married ___ Smith. Beginning in 1793 in the tax lists of Wythe Co. Va. until 1807 there are two if not three Nehemiah Bonhams and it would take considerable more search of the records of that County than I made to identify each. From various traditions, records and especially "The Bonham Family" by Smith, Nehemiah Bonham Jr. who married Isabelle Scott is a brother of David Bonham.

When and where they were married is not known and when they came from Germany is not known. In 1819 they moved from Chester Co. Penn. to Ohio and settled in Dutch Valley in Tuscarawas Co.

HARMON, ELIZABETH, married William Bonham.

BONHAM, WILLIAM (b Aug. 6, 1813 in Fauquier Co. Va. died March 4, 1891) on his farm near Heston, Harvey Co. Kan. and he and his wife Elizabeth are both buried on the family lot McPherson, McPherson Co. Kan. He married March 3, 1838 in Tuscarawas Co. O. Elizabeth Harmon (b Aug. 17, 1817 Chester Co. Penn. died May 24, 1893, on the farm near Heston, Kan.) William moved from Coshocton Co. O. and settled in Wright Twsp. Green Co. Ind. He became an extensive fruit grower and hay raiser. His orchard was the best and largest there, so large that people had been known to get lost in them. In 1874 he made a visit to McPherson Co. Kan. where two of his sons Alfred Evan and William Alexander had located on farms. He liked the country so much that he returned to his home in Ind. and sold all his possessions and in 1879 returned to Kansas where he located first in McPherson Co. and later in Harvey Co. At the latter place he located on 160 acres 11 miles southwest of Heston. He and his wife remained on this farm until their deaths, when the farm passed to the youngest son Elias Bert Bonham.

DANKS, GEORGE, no further record.

DANKS, JOHN (born Nov. 16, 1761 died 1839 Spa _____ Logan Co. Ky.)

He married Nancy _____ ? no further records.

John Danks resided in Fredrick Co. Va. From the records it appears that John Danks was in Logan Co. Ky. before June 25, 1799 for on that date he had recorded a land grant of 200 acres at Spa Springs. He evidently returned to his home in Fredrick Co. Va. and remained there until 1805 or 1806, when he again returned to Logan Co. Ky. and had recorded another grant of land of 100 acres on Wolf Lick Creek, Feb. 4, 1806, which adjoined his previous grant. Apparently he again returned to Fredrick Co. Va. where he remained until the latter part of 1808, for on Oct. 4, 1808 he sells his farm of 122 acres in Fredrick Co. Va. to Henry Catlett. He and his wife Nancy both sign the deed. One hundred and four acres of this land is land he bought from Asa Hankins, Apr. 3, 1805 for £291 (two hundred ninety one pounds). On April 4, 1805 he mortgages the 104 acres to Asa Hendricks for £100. He alone signed the mortgage. It is probable that Nancy is the second wife of John Danks for the following reasons:

DANKS, WILLIAM son of John Danks was born Aug. 23, 1794, and the next child John was born Nov. 4, 1804, nearly 8 1/2 years intervening. The records of births in the John Danks bible are so regular 1787, 1789, 1790, 1792 and 1794, and then the lapse of 8 1/2 years when the births are again so regular 1802, 1804, 1806 and 1809. All children of John Danks are evidently by a first and second wife. There is a record of a John Danks in Northumberland Co. who about 1801 made application for license to marry a Nancy Gilbert. The application was not dated and tied in to bundle marked "1802". There was a home burial plot on the John Danks farm in Logan Co. Ky. where he, his wife Nancy and Nancy (Saunders) Danks, first of his son William and other relatives and members of the family were buried. Tombstones had been erected at most of the graves. Years later the farm passed from family hands and the tombstones were all removed and farm crops had been raised on the plot for many years. It was a great disappointment to me when I visited the place in 1933 (Feb) and not a sign of a grave or tombstone could be found. They were gone forever, records that I would have valued very much. John Danks was a private in Capt. Jennings Co. of the Va. Militia for six months in the Revolution. He was at Yorktown when Lord Cornwallis, the British General surrendered. He was one of the military guard that took the British prisoners from Yorktown to Fredrick Co. Va.

He married first Nov. 14, 1814 Nancy Saunders (born Aug. 24, 1793 died July 24, 1822) she was buried on the John Danks farm, Spa, Logan Co. Ky. He married second April 29, 1823 Logan Co. Ky. Elizabeth Priest (b Feb. 20, 1795. Va. d. Feb 21, 1879, Muhlenburg Co. Ky.) She was buried in the home plot on the farm. Line of descent by 1st wife. William Danks lived on his father's farm in Logan Co. Ky. until after 1840. He then moved to Muhlenburg Co. Ky. and located on a farm there. He was a farmer by trade. William Danks served from Sept. 18 to Oct. 30 (43 days) in the war of 1812 as a private in Capt. Simon H. Curds Co. of Ky. mounted militia. He furnished his own horse and equipment.

PURDY, MARY ANN married John Danks

DANKS, JOHN SAUNDERS (b Nov. 15, 1815. Spa Springs Ky. Logan Co. died Mar. 15, 1902. Olathe, Johnson Co. Kan.) He married 1st March 25, 1844, Logan Co. Ky. Mary Ann Purdy, (b Sept. 28, 1824, Logan Co. Ky. d. Aug. 14, 1892, Elbert, Colo.) He married 2nd in Schuyler Co. Mo., Mary Ann Biehl (b Dec. 13, 1857, Ill. d. Jan. 14, 1886, Queen City, Mo.) Line of descent by 1st wife. John Saunders Danks was a farmer by trade. After his first marriage he lived on the farm of his grandfather (John Danks) at the place known as Spa Springs. His father, William Danks also had lived on this site before he moved to Muhlenburg, Ky. In 1856 John S. Danks with his wife, Mary Ann, with their three children, Elizabeth, Nancy Jane and William Alexander and two sisters of his wife, Martha and Nancy Purdy moved from the "old home site" at Spa Springs to Leavenworth Co. Kan. In 1857 they all moved again to Johnson Co. Kan. There he settled on a 160 acre farm near Gardner in that Co. For 20 years he prospered as a farmer. He divided his farm and stock with his wife. On May 22, 1878 he sells his 80 acres and moved to Schuyler Co. Mo. Where he married Mary Ann Biehl for his second wife. He remained in Schuyler Co. Mo. until her death and then he returned to Johnson Co. Kan. where he lived with different ones of his children until his death. On June 3rd, 1879, Mary Ann Danks (1st wife of John Saunders) who had previously gone to Bijou Basin, Colo. sold her 86 acres (part of the 160) to William Kelly of that Co.

DANKS, VIRGINIA ALICE married Alfred Evan Bonham.

BONHAM, ALFRED EVAN (b Nov. 22, 1849, Wright Twsp. Green Co. Ind. d 12-24-1924, Sheridan, Sheridan Co. Wyo. He married Sept. 8, 1875, Newton Harvey Co. Kan. Virginia Alice Danks (b Sept. 23, 1858, Johnson Co. Kan. d 7-20-1920, Sheridan, Sheridan Co. Wyo.). Alfred Evan Bonham left his home on his father's farm in Green Co. Ind. in 1865 and went to Platt Co. Ill. where his sister Susan, who had married Strange Edmundsen, were living. When the Edmundsen family left Platt Co. Ill. in 1872 he went with them. They moved to Osage Co. Kan. where the Edmundsens settled on land. Alfred Evan Bonham took a squatter's right on 160 acres, but never filed on it. He built a log cabin on the place. He later abandoned the claim. The foundation of the cabin was still there in 1936. After leaving the claim he went to Colo. and did some prospecting. Then he went to McPherson Co. Kan. where he settled on 160 acres of land in Mound Twsp. in 1874. In 1879 he left the farm and moved to McPherson where he engaged in the grocery and queensware business by buying out the "Blue Front Store". His venture in the mercantile business was a failure. In the latter part of Dec. 1881, he, with his wife and sons Oriel and William left McPherson, Kan. and went southwest of Georgetown. Working in the mine he became badly leaded and abandoned the mine in 1883. In 1907 the mine sold for ten million dollars. About June 1883 with two mule teams and two wagons he, with his family, consisting of Oriel, William and daughter Myrtle left from Elliot, Colo. to go to Washington Terr. (now state). After getting west of Laramie, Wyo. he changed his course and went into Dakota Terr., and until fall was constantly among the Sioux Indians. He then turned south and entered Nebr. where he worked on the "North Western Railroad" for a contractor, "Ben Turner". As winter set in he moved to Norfolk, Nebr. for the winter. In the spring of 1884 he took a railroad contract where Hay Springs, Nebr. is now. He took another contract further west later on the White River, near Crawford, Nebr. He remained at this camp during the winter of 1884 and finished the contract in the spring of 1885. There with a construction of his own of 65 teams, harness, wagons, scrappers, wheelers, etc. he took a contract of eight miles on the Cheyenne Northern (now Colorado Southern.) The main camp was on the present site of Chug Water. He finished the contract in 1886, but never received any pay for his work. He then returned to Nebr. and took several contracts on the Burlington. He had a contract of one mile just a mile west of Bingham, in Sheridan Co. Here he made a "Declaratory Claim" for a Preemption claim of 160 acres of land adjoining just over the County in Deull Co. Nebr. he filed on 160 acres timber claim. In 1890 he took a contract of two miles on the Burlington in the Black Hills of So. Dak. between Edgemont and Mystic? The station of "Argyle" is on the contract. Here again he never received his pay, and put him in such financial straits that he sold his claim and cattle in Sheridan and Deull Co's. to W. A. Anderson a neighbor. The Anderson family had come in a couple of years before from Blue Ridge, Kan. In 1891 he, with his wife and sons Oriel, William and daughters Myrtle and Ethel, left Sheridan Co. Nebr. with a small remains of a once large outfit and went to So. Dak. and worked for a while east of Pierce, So. Dak. on a railroad running from Pierce to Huron. In the fall of 1891 he took a contract of three miles on Rapid Creek. The main camp was on that part called the "Big Bend". No pay was received for this work. In the spring of 1892 he moved his outfit to Wyoming and during the summer and fall did some work on Clear Creek above Clearmont, at Alm, Verona and just north of Sheridan at "Old Diety". He bought some property in Sheridan that winter (1892) on the corner north side of 8th St. and west side of Valaista? (200 ft) and later the 200 feet on the east side of Alvista?, and later the 200 feet across the alley east the 200 feet fronting on Main St. In 1893 he had a contract of one mile on the Five Mile Flats between Ranchaster? and Perkinan, and in 1894 worked three places between Wyo. - Mont. state line and Huntley. Between times he dug some irrigation ditches at Soldier Creek and a large contract on the Alliance Ditch west of Sheridan. This was the end of his contracting. For several years he worked as section foreman at Perkman?, and in the round house at Sheridan. In 1905 he bought the "Guy Burton Saloon" at Arvida and another lot there belonging to Guy Burton. This was a very successful venture for here he made enough to pay off some $15,000 in old judgments and old accounts, which he would not have been had he not been beaten out of many thousands of dollars more from his railroad contracts. He was not alone in his disappointments and misfortunes. There was a sacrifice far greater and more noble. The sacrifice of the wife, who through all these years more than did her share. Cooking for as many as 150 men in the railroad camps, is a task few men meet, and her only help a son, not then in his teens. When the sons reached the teen age, they took their places and did a man's work, and the oldest daughter took her place by the side of their mother.

It is too bad, but it happens so often, that in later years of life that domestic discord sets in and becomes miserable and separation takes place, which occurred here in Feb. 1915.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be recorded to ensure the integrity of the financial data. This includes not only sales and purchases but also expenses and income. The document further states that regular audits are necessary to verify the accuracy of these records and to identify any discrepancies. It also mentions that proper record-keeping is essential for tax purposes and for providing a clear picture of the company's financial health to stakeholders.

In the second part, the focus shifts to the management of inventory. It highlights the need for a systematic approach to tracking stock levels, ensuring that there is always enough inventory to meet customer demand without overstocking, which can lead to increased holding costs. The document suggests implementing a just-in-time (JIT) system where inventory is ordered and received only as needed. This helps in reducing waste and improving cash flow. Additionally, it stresses the importance of regular physical counts to reconcile with the recorded inventory levels.

The third section addresses the topic of human resources. It discusses the challenges of finding and retaining skilled talent in a competitive market. The document recommends investing in employee training and development to enhance their skills and loyalty. It also suggests creating a positive work environment that encourages innovation and collaboration. Furthermore, it mentions the importance of fair compensation and benefits to attract and retain top talent. The document concludes by stating that effective HR management is crucial for the long-term success of any organization.

R. C. BONHAM, age 69, Concord, Tenn. writes:

"The earliest notice of the Bonham's of Virginia is given in Burkes History of Virginia, in the list of those who came to the Colony previous to 1620, is the name of William Bonham. My grandfather Martin L. Bonham, stated that a brother of William, named Hezekiah also came over to the Colony and both had families and settled and lived there for years. One was a ship builder and the other a farmer. The ship builder built a ship and put to sea and was never heard from any more. From these families sprang the earliest Bonham's of Va. The descendants of these scattered and settled in various counties of Virginia, Tennessee, South Carolina, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. Benjamin Bonham, Sr. lived in Wythe Co. Va. His sons, Martin L. and Benjamin, Jr. moved to Blount Co. Tenn. about 1812. Martin L. a wheel-wright, settled in Long Hollow, not far from the Middle Settlement; and there was a large spring on this place. There was a M. E. church at the Middle Settlement called by the same name. In the cemetery there the old Bonham's are buried. Benjamin, Jr. a Methodist preacher, bought a farm on the Caney Branch near the village of Louisville and only a few miles from Martin's place, where he lived and died. Benjamin, Jr. married Ollie Saffel and had:

was in the nursery business, and moving there wound up my residence in Illinois."

IN COUNCIL BLUFFS

The matter of this article was mainly to give a short sketch of Mr. Bonham's pioneering in Illinois, and this has been given mainly in his own language. His business life in Council Bluffs, where he moved when it was a struggling hamlet, and where he lived to see it grow into one of Iowa's important cities, we only have space for short mention of this. He conducted a nursery business there for over a quarter of a century, and ran one of the most extensive of its kind on the Missouri River. Some years ago he retired, and is now enjoying the evening of his life with no business cares to perplex. Mr. Bonham's wife died only four years ago. They lived together well onto seventy years. He has three sons and two daughters, B. A. and A. M. Bonham both of Council Bluffs, and John Bonham who is a wealthy miner in Nevada; the two daughters are Mrs. Travilla Smith, and Mrs. Anna E. Smith, their husbands are not related to each other, both of Council Bluffs.

PASSES AWAY AT 95 YEARS OF AGE.

A. S. BONHAM, PIONEER RESIDENT OF COUNCIL BLUFFS AND VICINITY.
ONE OF THE COUNTY'S OLDEST MEN

A. S. Bonham, aged 95 years and one month, died at the home of his oldest son, A. M. Bonham, 220 Harmony St. at 9:20 o'clock Friday morning after a two week's illness from the general infirmities of old age. Mr. Bonham was the third oldest man in this part of the county.

He was born in Fleming Co. Ky., Feb. 20, 1816. He came to this vicinity from Ill. in 1864. His wife Mrs. Rachel Hayden Bonham, died eight years ago last November. Prior to her death they had been married 67 years. She was 87 years old at the time of her death.

THIRTY-FIVE GREAT GRANDCHILDREN

He is survived by four children, eighteen grandchildren and thirty-five great grandchildren. The four children living are A. M. Bonham and Mrs. O. J. Smith this city, Mrs. D. J. Smith of Omaha, and J. W. Bonham of Ryolite, Nevada. His oldest living child is A. M. Bonham, at whose home he died. He is 72 years old. The deceased's oldest child Barney A. Bonham, died January 25, 1908. He was 71 years old at death.

HERE WHEN OMAHA WAS A WILDERNESS

Mr. Bonham is known to every old settler in this country for miles around. He has long been one of the most aged men of this city and has been honored as one who helped build Council Bluffs from a town for struggling travelers to the city it now is. Mr. Bonham, since coming to Council Bluffs, then Kansasville, has seen Omaha grow from a wilderness of sunflowers and brush to a large city.

POTTAWATTAMIE FARMER FOR 20 YEARS

It was Sept. 17, 1835 that Mr. Bonham married Miss Rachel Hayden in Fleming Co. Ky. Two years afterward they moved to the unsettled wilderness of Illinois, where he engaged in the nursery and milling business until the call of the west attracted him to Council Bluffs. After reaching this city he for twenty years owned and managed a farm in Kane township, adjacent to Council Bluffs. Part of that time he lived in his then palatial home in the city. The home now stands at the corner of Pierce St. and Franklin Ave. Concluding his life as a farmer, he for a time engaged in handling bee supplies. Then he

THE EFFECT OF VITAMIN DEFICIENCY ON THE GROWTH OF THE RAT
By E. V. McCollum, M. S. Steen, and J. H. Sargent
From the Department of Nutrition, University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wis.

The purpose of this study was to determine the effect of a diet deficient in vitamins upon the growth of the rat. The rats were divided into two groups: one group was fed a diet containing all the essential vitamins, and the other group was fed a diet deficient in vitamins. The results showed that the rats fed the deficient diet grew much more slowly than the rats fed the diet containing all the essential vitamins.

From the Department of Nutrition, University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wis.

This report describes the effect of a diet deficient in vitamins upon the growth of the rat. The rats were divided into two groups: one group was fed a diet containing all the essential vitamins, and the other group was fed a diet deficient in vitamins. The results showed that the rats fed the deficient diet grew much more slowly than the rats fed the diet containing all the essential vitamins.

This review discusses the effect of a diet deficient in vitamins upon the growth of the rat. The rats were divided into two groups: one group was fed a diet containing all the essential vitamins, and the other group was fed a diet deficient in vitamins. DISCUSSION

By E. V. McCollum, M. S. Steen, and J. H. Sargent
From the Department of Nutrition, University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wis.

This discussion summarizes the findings of the study. The rats fed the diet deficient in vitamins grew much more slowly than the rats fed the diet containing all the essential vitamins. This suggests that vitamins are essential for normal growth.

CONCLUSIONS

THE EFFECT OF VITAMIN DEFICIENCY ON THE GROWTH OF THE RAT
By E. V. McCollum, M. S. Steen, and J. H. Sargent
From the Department of Nutrition, University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wis.

The conclusions of this study are that vitamins are essential for normal growth. A diet deficient in vitamins results in retarded growth of the rat.

returned to his old business as a nurseryman; gaining through that business a name of commercial integrity that has been an honor to him during his declining years. Mr. Bonham planted the first vineyard near this city in 1863. Now Council Bluffs is noted for the extensive grape vineyards that adorn the hillsides south and east of the city.

Other incidents of historical importance to residents of this town and county have happened during his life here, many of them being directly due to his influence as an early settler.

ONE OF FOUNDERS OF CHRISTIAN CHURCH

He was one of the first founders of the Christian Church in this city and has been an active member ever since that time. It was May 1st, 1891, that the organization was first definitely started with Mr. Bonham as one of the most active members. On Dec. 3, 1893, the Tabernacle, standing where the First Christian church now stands, was completed. This was one of the most joyful periods of the aged settlers life. Although rapidly declining with his usual load of years at the completion of the new edifice, Mr. Bonham was equally joyous with those who worked to have the building completed.

In politics Mr. Bonham was an ardent republican. His many experiences during the rapid fire campaigns of the old days were a constant source from which he drew many favorite stores. That the old settlers remaining will view the passing of their aged friend with a rush of old memories and a sorrow for his departure cannot be doubted, and that his many friends of more recent years, together with his relatives, will hear of his death with a thought for his work during his long lifetime is also beyond question.

JOHN F. BONHAM, Sebastopol, Calif. writes:

In 1850 father 'took up' a rich gravel mine on the American River, which he held as a private bank, as he could wash out a hundred dollars a day. In 1852 he moved here, in 1864 to Galena, Nev. for 18 months, returned here till 1865, visited in Oregon for a year, returned to San Jose, Calif. where he died in 1889, age 69. EUGENE WASHINGTON BONHAM, age 73, St. Paul, Minn. writes:

"The first Bonham family I ever heard of came from England to Virginia. My grandfather, Nehemiah was a descendant of his, but I do not know how remote. Nehemiah had five sons: Israel Washington; Harvey; Martin Luther; Zedekiah Asbury (my father); Benjamin. Nehemiah and his family moved from Virginia to Blount Co. Tenn. in 1805 and lived there until 1812, when he moved to Hamilton Co., Ohio, where the family scattered and my father, Zedekiah Asbury, moved to Indiana.

Zedekiah Asbury Bonham married Amelia Cullom, Aug. 21, 1817 Cincinnati, Ohio and moved to Harrison, Dearborn Co. Indiana. He died at Lakeville, Minn. June 26, 1866. To them were born nine children, only six of them reaching maturity.

J. W. BONHAM, Smithville, Tenn. writes:

"About 1810, Martin Luther Bonham came here. In 1843 he married Rebecca McGinness. Two years later he went to the Mexican War, came home and moved to Arkansas, where he died about 1855. His wife and five children returned here. She and two of the children soon died, leaving my father and his two small sisters. When they got large enough to inquire of their father, some said he came from Indiana and some said he came from New Orleans, where he had gone with some produce on the river.

"My father, Martin Luther Bonham, m. Rebecca Trapp, 1865 and had: S. Anna Polk, Bowling Green, Ky.: John Washington, Smithville, Tenn.: Jephtha McDenton: Fannie Martin: James Monroe, Bowling Green, Ky.: Mary E. C. Astor: William Luther, Atlanta, Ga.

"My father remembers his mother telling him, after the death of his father, that his grandfather's name was, Israel Washington Bonham. Where did my grandfather, Martin Luther Bonham, come from and from what family?"

JAMES HARVEY BONHAM, Sauk Rapids, Minn. writes:

"According to the best information I have, Martin Luther Bonham, the grandfather of the above J.W. is the son of Israel W. Bonham, my uncle, Martin Luther left his home in Franklin Co. Ind. at an early age and was only heard of once.

"In 1837 or 1838 my father met a man by the name of Seth Buffington who told him that two years before that time when going to New Orleans on a flat boat he made the acquaintance of a Martin Luther Bonham. He told him where his folks lived and that he expected they thought him dead as he had not written but expected to go home two years later. Buffington was known as a reliable man."

RHODA BONHAM BRADDOCK, 411 Eastern Ave. Connorsville, Ind. writes:

"I remember hearing my people speak of Martin L. Bonham when I was a child. About all I can tell is, the records of this county show that he was married to Edith Stanley on the 31st day of Aug. 1837. About six months after his marriage, it is said he left here with a load of produce supposedly bound for New Orleans. Since then he has never been heard of until this recent information came to us."

DR. S. D. SHEPARD, Anderson, Ind. writes:

"This Bonham affair has unearthed two matters to me unlooked for. First and the most astonishing is the discovery of my uncle, Martin Luther Bonham, son of Israel W. Bonham, who had been lost to us for some 70 years and as far as I ever knew was never heard from. He was born about 1813. His first wife afterwards married a Mr. Casy and she is now dead."

My Grandfather often said that he could trace his genealogy to an English officer in Cromwell's army. In the early days there were 3 brothers who came to this country from England, one never married, one married without issue, the other married and had a family and from them all the Bonham's and their posterity in this country sprang.

HARVEY H. BONHAM, AGE 62, Calleo, Mo. writes:

"My grandparents were Nehemiah and Isabel Scott Bonham. He was a soldier in the War of 1812, first a Captain, and then a Colonel. I have seen his sword quite often; Capt. Frank Bonham kept it, but Jerome Allen Bonham, Berkeley, Calif. has the sword now. Grandfather Nehemiah Bonham was born 1770, Wytheville, Wythe Co. Va., moved to Tenn. where he was during the War of 1812; to Pike Co. Mo. in 1818; and to Grant Co. Wis. 1834 where he died in 1845. There was a Hamilton H. Bonham who came here from Iowa, who formerly came from Ohio. He was considerably older than I and he had served through the war in an Iowa regiment. His family moved to Wardner, Idaho. Then there was Gen. David J. Bonham, who was a Quartermaster General of Missouri troops at St. Joseph all through the war. He died a member of the Missouri State Senate. The Bonhams were formerly from Loudoun, Culpepper and Wythe Counties in Virginia. I have heard older ones speak of Evan Bonham. I have seen several of the Southern Bonhams and they all took sides with the South and there were a great many of them killed in battle.

WISCONSIN BONHAM'S

This record is taken out of a Bible given to my father by his mother in the year 1811. Published in 1810.

This is a family record of my father's and mother's families as far back as I can get them. (Tyre Bonham, no doubt)

James b. 3-8-1799 m. Jane Ford 10-3-1819; b. 12-7-1796 d. 7-28-1850
Elizabeth . Bonham b. 2-5-1822
Isabelle L. Bonham b. 12-22-1823
Diadema P. Bonham b. 2-1-1826
Benjamin H. Bonham b. 1-4-1828
Francis M. Bonham b. 3-4-1830
Tyre M. Bonham b. 2-26-1832
Joseph S. Bonham b. 3-4-1834
Elizabeth Ford d. 2-9-1843
Floyd Ford d. 3-19-1843
Benjamin Ford d. 4-3-1843
Martha Donavan d. 8-13-1843

(The above Ford's are my mother's father and mother and brother and I think Mrs. Donovan was a sister. I can't tell how so many of them came to die so close together unless it was a cholera year. Nehemiah Martin Bonham d. 7-7-1851, Alexander Ford d. 2-22-1851. Those two uncles died with the cholera on Boise prairie, Martin at Uncle Frank's and Ford at John Miller's, his son-in-law.)

Tyre Bonham's mother Jane Ford was a sister of the mother of John Wilkes Booth who shot Abraham Lincoln at Ford's Theatre.

The Ferry's and Bonham's came to Wisconsin about the same time. Ross Ferry was raised by Betsy Ross (American Flag).

Ross Ferry preached his first sermon at Monfort, Wisconsin. He was Justice of Peace for years. Collected taxes in coon skins. Performed 170 marriages.

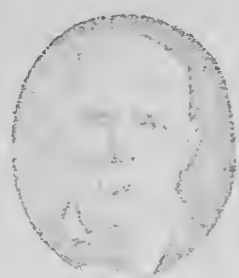

The Bonham powder horn was supposed to have been carried in Revolutionary War by a Frank Bonham?

Ross Bonham, son of James Scott Bonham was named for Ross Ferry.

Frank Smith, husband of Emma Bonham, lived in England, got in disfavor and had to skip to Canada - changed his name to Smith. Real name not known.

EDMUND J. BONHAM, TOPEKA, KANSAS WRITES:

"A great many years ago, I have understood, the Bonham Family came from France to England - having been driven from that country during one of the French Revolutions, however, somehow I know but little of the family farther back than my grandfather, Nehemiah Bonham b. Wythe Co. Va. 1770 m. Isabella Scott 1797, moved to Blount Co. Tenn. 1808, to Pike Co. Mo. 1818, and to Grant Co. Wisc. 1834, and died at Hurricane Grove, Wis. in 1845.

Grandfather, Nehemiah Bonham was a Captain in the War of 1812. I have often seen his sword at Uncle Frank Bonham's and used to play soldier with it when I was a boy. My father had Grandfather's powder horn that he carried in the War. My grandparents had:

My father wrote the following memo in 1881, two years prior to his death at Clay Center, Kansas.

"James Bonham b. March 8, 1799 in what was then known as Rye Valley, Wythe Co. Va. where my father, Capt. Nehemiah Bonham, lived until I was about nine years old, when he sold out and moved to Blount Co. Tenn. near a place called Big Springs, where he followed farming and wagon making until the War of 1812 broke out. He was elected Captain of the militia and set up their place of drill at Big Springs. He served until the end of the war when the soldiers were discharged. Father's sword before the war of 1812 had an English lion as a guard. As the war approached, father had the lion taken off and a steel guard put on and it figured as an implement of war and is now (1881) in the hands of my brother Frank. The War of 1812 brought a change of things in regard to the settlement of the acquired territory. In 1818 I was married to Jane Ford and in October my father with his family and my wife's people started for Missouri. The most of us went by keel boat, but on account of dry weather we could not get through until April 1819. In the fall of 1834 I moved from Missouri to the territory of Wisconsin and bought land just west of where the county seat, Lancaster, Grant Co. was located. From the time I settled in Wisconsin until I left the State in 1872, I served as Justice of Peace 27 years and at the same time I served a number of times as county and town commissioner and several times as assessor."

JOSEPH SCOTT BONHAM, Rigby, Idaho writes:

"As to the Sword held by Uncle Frank Bonham, he always told me it was handed down as an heirloom from Col. Bonham of England who fought under Prince Rupert in the war of Charles I against Oliver Cromwell. It was easy to double the point back to the hilt. In inspecting it after I grew up it always struck me as an honorary presentation by the government, rather than a weapon that had been designed for battle."

EDMUND J. BONHAM, Topeka, Kansas writes:

"I think J. S. Bonham is mistaken about the sword being pliable, as it is rather a short heavy sword designed to be used as a weapon and its history as an implement of war dates back to the time of Cromwell's Round Heads. He has in mind a sword that Uncle Frank used to tell us about being in the family in England many years ago, but not grandfather's sword. On the death of grandfather in 1845 the sword went to Uncle Martin, grandfather having lived and died at his house. When Uncle Martin died in 1851 the sword went to Uncle Frank. Upon his death in 1892 the sword went to son William N. of Bakersfield, Calif. Upon his death a few years ago it went to J. A. Bonham, son of Uncle Martin, who was only six years old at his father's death, and was raised by Uncle Frank and grew to manhood right in the family with the sword. My father's account of the sword and J. A. Bonham's statement tell the story of the sword."

JEROME ALLEN BONHAM, age 65, Berkeley, Calif. writes:

"My grandfather, Nehemiah Bonham was a Colonel in the U. S. Volunteers. I have the sword that he carried in the War of 1812. He was born 1770 Wythe Co. Va. now W. Va. married Isabel Scott in 1797, moved to East Tenn. in 1808, to Pike Co. Mo. in 1818, to Wisconsin 1834 and died 1845.

My father, Nehemiah Martin, son of Nehemiah and Isabel Bonham was born 1813, Blount Co. Tenn. went with parents to Mo. where he married in 1838, Mahala, daughter of Wm. Neville, who came from Shelby Co. Ky. in 1830, moved to Grant Co. Wisc. 1839 died 1851.

HEZEKIAH--MARY BONHAM BONHAM LINE

HEZEKIAH BONHAM (5) Nehemiah (4) Hezekiah (3) Nicholas (2) Geo. (1)
b N.J. ca 1740-2 d Va.?

(In error the N.J. Archives lists this Hezekiah as Nehemiah in the abstract of the will of Benjamin Martin, father of Elizabeth Martin, second wife of Nehemiah (4) and parents of Benjamin and Hezekiah who are mentioned in the above mentioned will. The writer has a photostatic copy of the original will which definitely proves this error, which has caused a great deal of confusion to researchers on this line. Hez. was licensed to exhort by Asbury.)

Facts, ISAAC CORWIN BONHAM told to his family on the evening of his 80th birthday.

"My father's father was Hezekiah Bonham, born in Hardy Co. Va. May 27th, 1801. He used to tell me stories of Harper's Ferry. He moved to Ohio and on Dec. 13th, 1829 he married Nancy Byers, who was born in Ohio, Feb. 5th, 1810. Hezekiah Bonham died April 13th, 1889. Nancy Bonham died June 6th, 1903. Both are buried in Malvern, Iowa. My father was Thomas Bonham, son of Hezekiah and Nancy Bonham. He was born Oct. 10th, 1830. As a lad I knew his brothers and sisters (my uncles and aunts) as follows:

JACOB, SAMUEL, AMOS, SARAH, SOPHIA and MARY.

On Sept. 14th, 1854 my father married Matilda Ditter, I think in Zanesville, Putnam Co. Ohio. I have often heard them tell of their wedding trip by covered wagon train of about forty families from Ohio to McGregor, Iowa, in the fall of 1854. In the spring of 1855 they continued their journey by wagon train and settled in Olmsted Co. Minn. There I, Isaac Corwin, was born on Aug. 28th, 1856. My brother Emery was born June 25th, 1859. My sister Ella was born June 1st, 1861. And sister Edith, May 27th, 1864. On January 4th, 1881, I married Georgia Grace Earll in Malvern, Iowa. She was born in Lemon, Wyoming Co. Penn. on Sept. 22nd, 1862. Her father was Joseph Burr Earll and her mother was Grace Hine Earll. Our children are as follows:

Edna, born Feb. 9th, 1882-Charles, born Sept. 8th, 1884
Thomas, born Nov. 7th, 1887-Jayne, born May 4th, 1890.

(All dates recorded in the family Bible)

Edna married Mahlon Madison Head, June 6th, 1901 Council Bluffs, Ia.

Charles married Alta Wheeler, August 8th, 1917

Thomas married Margarite Wagner, December 14th, 1912

Jayne married William Clarence Dooly, Sept. 13th, 1913

Edna's children are: Georgia, Aug. 6th, 1902-Bonham,
May 13th, 1912

Charley's children: Tom Wheeler, March 9th, 1918

Eva Jayne, June 24th, 1919-Ethel Grace
August 17th, 1923-Corwin, Feb. 17, 1925

Tom has one son, John Corwin, June 13th, 1914.

Jayne has two children: Mary Edna, April 4th, 1916

Martha Jayne, January 27th, 1922

My brother Emery died unmarried, Oct. 22, 1878. My sister Ella married Willis Ivers and has two children, Maude and Fred. My sister Edith married William H. Boney in the late summer of 1883. A daughter Nelle was born May 30, 1884.

Edna's daughter Georgia married George Magoun, June 16th, 1923. Their son Carleton was born January 21, 1928. George Magoun was born March 2nd, 1900.

Edna's son Albert Bonham Head married Vera Ungerman Dec. 10th, 1936 in Greensburg, Penn. Vera Ungerman was born April 23, 1914. Their son Peter Mahlon Head was born August 24th, 1936.

These dates are correct to the best of my knowledge.

"I had an old tin box that belonged to Jeremiah Bonham and in it there were old deeds, land grants that date back to Colonial days. Some are patents from Lord Baltimore."

J. N. BONHAM, age 57, Oakland, Calif. writes:

"My father, Perry Bonham, was born in Penn. and came to Calif. in 1869. He had one sister and brothers were Jerome, Calvin, John and Jackson. I was born in 1851 and have Herbert and Blanch. My brother Perry was born in 1853."

JOHN BONHAM, Harrison, Ohio writes:

"My grandfather, Aaron Bonham, had: John, Dave, Ezra, Jane and my father Elijah. Grandfather came from Penn. to near Elizabethtown, Ohio, later moved to near Bright, Ind. Jane is 70 years old and lives near Bright, Ind."

HISTORY OF DARKE CO. OHIO, 1880, page 624:

Wm. L. Bonham, Gordon, Ohio born Hunterdon Co. N. J. 1815 son of Ambrose and Anna Bonham, married Rebecca Rittenhouse, 1837, came to Montgomery Co. Ohio, 1838, to Darke Co. 1841. They had: Harrison b. 1840: Sarah: Martha J. Harrison was in Co. B, 110 Ohio Volunteer Infantry, 1862-1865."

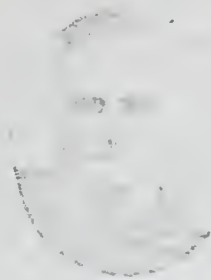

HIRAM J. BONHAM, age 78, Colusa, Calif. writes:

"I wish to confirm the statement made by you that of all the Bonhams which I have met, and they are many, they have all been men of integrity and worth. While poor but honest may be applied to a good many, I think we find no mean characters among them. While in my own immediate family there are no real shining lights I say with pride that I have raised a good family of children, upright and industrious and with this I am satisfied."

WILLIAM BONHAM

Shelby Co. Ill. ca 1881

(The parents are not known, but I have reason to believe that he was a son of William Bonham of St. Clair Co. Ill. who in turn was a son of Malachi (6) son of Absalom (5) of Md. and N.C. A descendant of this family reports that the family formerly pronounced the name Boneham, and only the Absalom line pronounced it that way as far as I know.)

AARON BONHAM FAMILY

There were four Aaron Bonhams in military service during the War of 1812. Two were from Belmont County, Ohio, one from Indiana and one from Virginia. As we have records of three of them, it is evident that Aaron from Virginia is the ancestor of this family.

(It has been a question as to who were the parents of Jasper Newton, and the above is my conclusion and I feel quite sure it is correct. If my conclusion is correct the line is as follows:

George Bonham (1) Nicholas (2) Hezekiah (3) Malachi (4)
b 1713 Mar: Jemima Harker. Malachi (5) b ca 1732 Mar: ? 1751, Malachi (6) Mar: Mary Forest (Williamson) 1785 in Md.
Richard (7) Mar: Sarah ?, was in Jasper County Ill. Census 1840, with one male under five and one female five to ten which would be Louise who married Casselberry.

It has long been my opinion that J.N. was named Jasper after the county and Newton after the county seat Newton.

Richard was not in Jasper Co. in 1850 and may have gone to Henry Co. where his brother Jas. Forest lived or at least died, or possibly to Knox Co. where his brother Nelson
Malachi married in 1841 though he (N.M.B.) was in Stark
Co. in both 1850 and 1860 Census.

The family report is that Jasper Newton was orphaned and his father Richard may have died before 1850 Census and J.N. lived with someone else and not necessarily the family. Louisa seems to have married very young and may have had her first child at 17, not uncommon then. Nelson Malachi named his fourth son Richard.

IRISH BONHAMS

JOHN WILLIAM BONHAM Sr. b 1811 N.Car. d 1913 Tex.

The legend of this family is that a JOHN BONHAM came to Amer. from Ireland in the early 1800's, met a Scotch lady aboard ship and that they may have been married by the captain of the ship. (Not confirmed). They settled in N. Car. where the above John William Bonham was born in 1811. There were no doubt other children, but have never found any record or trace except the above John W.

Sure it is that this line does not descend from Nicholas Bonham. They have been known to call themselves "The Irish Bonhams." This is one of the few families known to have lived at Bonham, Texas.

Conclusions of EBH:

As there is no mention of wife of Jacob in the Caveat action, also no mention or signature of wife in deed to James Watson 4-13-1779, it would seem that his wife must have died before that date. As Landon was not yet twenty-one years old in 1792 altho the oldest son, it would appear that he may have been born about 1771 as Amariah was born April 1st, 1773. Patience was mentioned as an infant under 21 which could mean that she was born between 1773, birth of Amariah and 1778 possible death date of the mother, wife of Jacob.

Jacob Bonham enlisted May 18th, 1782 as a Sergeant under Col. Wm. Crawford in the Sandusky Expedition against the Indians. As records 24 days service he was killed by the Indians June 9th, 1782. Ensign John Bonham was killed at the same time, but relationship not known at this time. Col. Wm. Crawford was captured and burned at the stake - there is a monument to his memory, just east of Upper Sandusky in Crawford County on the very spot where he was burned.

John Bonham who married a Rebeccah, no doubt the son of Jacob and brother of Amariah, sold land in Washington County, Penn. to Moses Bebout, Jan. 18, 1802.

Jeriah Bonham and wife Sarah sold land in Canton Twsp, Washington Co. Penn. to Sam Clark, Feb. 10, 1801. This Jeriah is no doubt brother of Jacob and son of Amariah of NJ (d.1803).

(3) SARAH Mar: Batey - no record of this family

(4) PETER No record of birth, marriage or children.

Amariah leased 200 acres of land in Loudoun Co. Va.

for the natural lives of Peter Bonham, John Bonham and Chas. Fox. Think Peter remained in Va. as have never found any record of his having been in Washington Co. Penn. with the rest of the family.

(5) JERIAH

Mar: SARAH ? She signed papers with Jeriah who owned property in Washington Co. Penn.

It is my opinion that the Amariah born in Washington Co. in 1802 and married Rebecah Luellen was a grandson of Jeriah. Up to this time (1959) have not been able to prove this connection.

(6) JACOB Birth date not known. Killed by Indians 6-9-1782 in the Sandusky Massacre in Ohio where Col. Crawford was burned at the stake.

Mar: ? Wife's name not known. Must have died before April 13-1779 when Jacob sold land to Jas. Watson and wife's signature not on the deed. As Patience was mentioned as infant under 21 in Sept. 1798 in court papers, the mother must have died in late 1778 or early 1779.
